Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. R. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably,

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, SIXTY-THREE DOZEN (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Mc., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

BATHING IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Olive Harper Takes a Turkish Bath.

[CONCLUDED.]

One attendant stood at my head, holding my gold-embroidered bathing apparatus, one lathered me with perfumed soap till I began to imagine myself a gigantic rose, and all these beautiful beings laughing and singing and gliding around me but other specimens of flowers. Another attendant rubbed me with gloves made of sponge, and another poured warm water over me incessantly, not dashing it, nor let it trickle, but just emptied the beautifully chased silver ewer over me with the gentlest motions, till it seemed like a caress. Then soap of bitter almonds was rubbed on my face, and another kind was rubbed in my hair, all done in that caressing way that made it a positive ecstacy; then more perfumed water till I felt drowning in a sea of all delights, in which I could distinguish perfumes, flowers, sweet singing voices, of heavenly beauty. Time and the outer world were lost in this delightful trance, and I desired nothing, nothing else in the world to make my life content forever.

To lie there on the marble and dreamily watch the glorious white of the living statues, with the long black hair, and the rich, dark eyes; to see the soft, undulating motions of those swimming in the warm, delicious water; to look at the lovely forms stretched at full length on the divans and on the edge of the fountain; and others laughing, sporting, singing, mingling, with affectionate glances and wrestling in the water or upon the marble floor, dripping from every limb the perfumed water that glistened on their bodies, and the trickling of the fountains, and the rosy, subdued light that stole in through the jealously guarded windows, were enough to send one of an imagination like mine off into the realms of fancy, and make one believe it the promised land, and cause the whole soul to be satisfied with the enchanting picture, which needed no imagination to embellish.

For after all, what is the Heaven we have been taught to believe in but a place where all is light and perfume, and love and beauty; where every sense shall be satisfied, and every desire filled with a pure and exquisite fullness? It is true that in this heaven of mine there were not any men, but I did not miss them in my supreme content, nor, I think, did any of the women who were lying about clasped lovingly in each other's arms, or laughing and sporting in the water, and I think now, as I have before, I had just as liefe have my paradise one where no men could come.

Just as I arrived at this very sensible conclusion, my attendant aroused me from my dreams of perfect peace, by pointing to the fountain and signifying that I was also to get in. My four friends then made their appearances with the servants and our luncheon, and nobody can tell of the comical look of us five sitting round the baskets eating, and without any clothes on. I have seen so many sights in my life, but we women around those baskets, with chicken legs in our hands and glasses of wine, and other things, were too perfectly ludicrous for anything, and I laughed till I couldn't eat. If I had only a napkin to cover my face I think I should have laid down and died on the spot.

All my dreams of a luxurious, sleepy, sensuous paradise, filled with undulating figures of transcendant beauty, were gone, and I was fully possessed of the demon of mirth, and I provoked the others into my own state of mind—a capacity which has never deserted me at any time or place, or with any person, in my life—and we were soon the maddest of the crowd in the perfumed waters. I would be afraid to tell all the freaks we performed, and antics and pranks we cut. Although it did not in the least startle the natives, it might some who have imagined me to be the model of perfection in deportment.

But then you must remember that Mrs. Grundy does not live in Constantinople, and she has no one to tell tales out of school except my own self, and I never tell more than suits me. It was two full hours before our wild sport ended, and we slid out of the water and sat talking in little knots of four or five, while the attendants were drying our hair, and separating it till it stood out in a light puff all around our heads. Not a tangle was left in it, and no comb or brush was used. Then we were laid on the same marble divans, though with a thick bathing towel this time under us, while the attendants punched and pulled, and rubbed all our joints, and cracked all our knuckles and elbows and shoulders, till I thought I should be always even more unsteady than ever. They don't give you the least chance to make a protest to this sort of thing. They roll you and rub you, up and down and round and round, till you only want a chance to get your hands free to "punch their heads," when all at once, panting and perspiring, they grin at you and say pekkey, which means "all right."—Correspondence of Alta California.

How the Discovery Was Made.

At the time of the last war between England and France, a brig commanded by an American, was captured off San Domingo by the Sparrow cutter, under the belief she was sailing under false colors, or, at any rate, carried enemy's goods. The Admiralty Court at Port Royal found the ship's papers perfectly correct; and as the captain swore hard and fast to her American nationality, the Court decided in his favor. The Yankee immediately commenced proceedings against the Sparrow's commander, Lieutenant Wylie, for the illegal capture. While the case was pending, a small tender in charge of Midshipman Felton entered the port, and the young officer being a friend of Wylie's, went on board the Sparrow, and was not long before he became acquainted with the latter's misfortune, and most unexpectedly delighted him by declaring the brig was a lawful prize, and the proof forthcoming. It appeared that the tender, cruising near the spot where the Sparrow's chase began, sighted a shark, which was upon deck in a very short time. Hearing the men employed cutting the monster up cry out, "Stand by to receive letters, boys; the postman's come on board," Mr. Felton went to see what it meant, and received a bundle of papers just taken from the shark's maw. Upon examination, these turned out to be the genuine papers of the brig, thrown overboard when capture was imminent; and they proved beyond any doubt that her cargo was French. The friends hastened to Kingston; but the news had traveled on before them, and the American skipper had disappeared, leaving his ship to be condemned, and Lieutenant Wylie to be made richer by three thousand pounds. Wylie and his crew were not the only ones destined to profit by the happily timed catch. In consequence of information derived from the strangely recovered papers, the captain of the Trent frigate was instructed to look out for a certain brig engaged in the same risky business, having one Pearl Darkey for its master. Before many days had passed, the Trent fell in with a vessel answering the description given, and Captain Otway ordered her to heave to. As soon as the American skipper appeared on the frigate's quarter deck, Captain Otway accosted him with, "Glad to see you, Mr. Pearl Darkey; you are the very man I have been looking for. I know all about you, and am going to send you to Port Royal." Taken aback by the unexpected recognition, Mr. Pearl Darkey, for it was he, did not deny his identity, or demur to visiting Port Royal, where his ship and his cargo were adjudged a lawful prize to the Trent.—Chamber's Journal.

Valuable Information.

BOSTON, Dec. 12, 1869.

Gentlemen: My only object in giving you this testimonial is to spread valuable information. Having been badly afflicted with Salt Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsaparilla, without obtaining any benefit, until I commenced taking the VEGETINE; and before I had completed the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronounced a well man; and my skin is smooth, and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good health before, and I attribute it all to the use of VEGETINE. To benefit those afflicted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

C. H. TUCKER, Pas. Ag't Mich. C. R. R.
69 Washington street, Boston.

Every One Speaks Favorably.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 31, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Canker from childhood, causing my mouth to be sore at times, so that I was unable to eat. Have taken many preparations, but with no effect until I tried your VEGETINE. After taking a few doses, I found it relieved the faintness at the stomach that always accompanies Canker humor; and by the time I had taken the third bottle my mouth was entirely cured. Have not been troubled with it since that time, which is eight months ago. I have recommended it to several of my acquaintances; and every one speaks favorably of its good effect.

Yours truly P. S. SHERMAN.

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, May 1, 1871.

DEAR SIR: This is to certify that I have sold at retail, sixty-three dozen (756 bottles) of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy, for the complaints for which it is recommended, that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am personally cognizant of several cases of Scrofulous Tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, H. GILMAN,
To H. R. STEVENS, Esq. 468 Broadway.

FURTHER PROOF.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 4, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: My daughter has been out of health for about two years. About a year ago she had a tumor come on her side, which was very painful. I saw VEGETINE advertised in the Farmer, and sent to Bangor and got two bottles. She is now taking the second bottle; her health is much improved, and the tumor is going away as fast as it came. Every one in this vicinity knows what VEGETINE has done for my daughter, and I take every opportunity to recommend it to those who are not aware of its great value. Very respectfully,

MRS. SUSAN C. RANDALL.

BATHING IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

Olive Harper Takes a Turkish Bath.

[CONCLUDED.]

One attendant stood at my head, holding my gold-embroidered bathing apparatus, one lathered me with perfumed soap till I began to imagine myself a gigantic rose, and all these beautiful beings laughing and singing and gliding around me but other specimens of flowers. Another attendant rubbed me with gloves made of sponge, and another poured warm water over me incessantly, not dashing it, nor let it trickle, but just emptied the beautifully chased silver ewer over me with the gentlest motions, till it seemed like a caress. Then soap of bitter almonds was rubbed on my face, and another kind was rubbed in my hair, all done in that caressing way that made it a positive ecstacy; then more perfumed water till I felt drowning in a sea of all delights, in which I could distinguish perfumes, flowers, sweet singing voices, of heavenly beauty. Time and the outer world were lost in this delightful trance, and I desired nothing, nothing else in the world to make my life content forever.

To lie there on the marble and dreamily watch the glorious white of the living statues, with the long black hair, and the rich, dark eyes; to see the soft, undulating motions of those swimming in the warm, delicious water; to look at the lovely forms stretched at full length on the divans and on the edge of the fountain; and others laughing, sporting, singing, mingling, with affectionate glances and wrestling in the water or upon the marble floor, dripping from every limb the perfumed water that glistened on their bodies, and the trickling of the fountains, and the rosy, subdued light that stole in through the jealously guarded windows, were enough to send one of an imagination like mine off into the realms of fancy, and make one believe it the promised land, and cause the whole soul to be satisfied with the enchanting picture, which needed no imagination to embellish.

For after all, what is the Heaven we have been taught to believe in but a place where all is light and perfume, and love and beauty; where every sense shall be satisfied, and every desire filled with a pure and exquisite fullness? It is true that in this heaven of mine there were not any men, but I did not miss them in my supreme content, nor, I think, did any of the women who were lying about clasped lovingly in each other's arms, or laughing and sporting in the water, and I think now, as I have before, I had just as lief have my paradise one where no men could come.

Just as I arrived at this very sensible conclusion, my attendant aroused me from my dreams of perfect peace, by pointing to the fountain and signifying that I was also to get in. My four friends then made their appearances with the servants and our luncheon, and nobody can tell of the comical look of us five sitting round the baskets eating, and without any clothes on. I have seen so many sights in my life, but we women around those baskets, with chicken legs in our hands and glasses of wine, and other things, were too perfectly ludicrous for anything, and I laughed till I couldn't eat. If I had only a napkin to cover my face I think I should have laid down and died on the spot.

All my dreams of a luxurious, sleepy, sensuous paradise, filled with undulating figures of transcendant beauty, were gone, and I was fully possessed of the demon of mirth, and I provoked the others into my own state of mind—a capacity which has never deserted me at any time or place, or with any person, in my life—and we were soon the maddest of the crowd in the perfumed waters. I would be afraid to tell all the freaks we performed, and antics and pranks we cut. Although it did not in the least startle the natives, it might some who have imagined me to be the model of perfection in deportment.

But then you must remember that Mrs. Grundy does not live in Constantinople, and she has no one to tell tales out of school except my own self, and I never tell more than suits me. It was two full hours before our wild sport ended, and we slid out of the water and sat talking in little knots of four or five, while the attendants were drying our hair, and separating it till it stood out in a light puff all around our heads. Not a tangle was left in it, and no comb or brush was used. Then we were laid on the same marble divans, though with a thick bathing towel this time under us, while the attendants punched and pulled, and rubbed all our joints, and cracked all our knuckles and elbows and shoulders, till I thought I should be always even more unsteady than ever. They don't give you the least chance to make a protest to this sort of thing. They roll you and rub you, up and down and round and round, till you only want a chance to get your hands free to "punch their heads," when all at once, panting and perspiring, they grin at you and say pekkey, which means "all right."—Correspondence of Alta California.

How the Discovery Was Made.

At the time of the last war between England and France, a brig commanded by an American, was captured off San Domingo by the Sparrow cutter, under the belief she was sailing under false colors, or, at any rate, carried enemy's goods. The Admiralty Court at Port Royal found the ship's papers perfectly correct; and as the captain swore hard and fast to her American nationality, the Court decided in his favor. The Yankee immediately commenced proceedings against the Sparrow's commander, Lieutenant Wylie, for the illegal capture. While the case was pending, a small tender in charge of Midshipman Felton entered the port, and the young officer being a friend of Wylie's, went on board the Sparrow, and was not long before he became acquainted with the latter's misfortune, and most unexpectedly delighted him by declaring the brig was a lawful prize, and the proof forthcoming. It appeared that the tender, cruising near the spot where the Sparrow's chase began, sighted a shark, which was upon deck in a very short time. Hearing the men employed cutting the monster up cry out, "Stand by to receive letters, boys; the postman's come on board," Mr. Felton went to see what it meant, and received a bundle of papers just taken from the shark's maw. Upon examination, these turned out to be the genuine papers of the brig, thrown overboard when capture was imminent; and they proved beyond any doubt that her cargo was French. The friends hastened to Kingston; but the news had traveled on before them, and the American skipper had disappeared, leaving his ship to be condemned, and Lieutenant Wylie to be made richer by three thousand pounds. Wylie and his crew were not the only ones destined to profit by the happily timed catch. In consequence of information derived from the strangely recovered papers, the captain of the Trent frigate was instructed to look out for a certain brig engaged in the same risky business, having one Pearl Darkey for its master. Before many days had passed, the Trent fell in with a vessel answering the description given, and Captain Otway ordered her to heave to. As soon as the American skipper appeared on the frigate's quarter deck, Captain Otway accosted him with, "Glad to see you, Mr. Pearl Darkey; you are the very man I have been looking for. I know all about you, and am going to send you to Port Royal." Taken aback by the unexpected recognition, Mr. Pearl Darkey, for it was he, did not deny his identity, or demur to visiting Port Royal, where his ship and his cargo were adjudged a lawful prize to the Trent.—Chamber's Journal.

The Daily Freeman

Kingston, Saturday Morning, June 6.

We cheerfully beg Gen. Butler's pardon for crediting him with a good deed which he has made characteristic haste to disavow. He did not report his committee as in favor of the remission of Miss Anthony's fine; he only wanted an account of her case printed for the consideration of the committee. The Essex statesman is all the more welcome to this apology for our mistake because his explanation enables us to admire afresh that perfect consistency in him by which he never does a right thing if he can help it. And he commonly can help it.

We are shocked at the World, which is usually such a model of propriety that we look upon any little verbal indiscretion it may commit with sad surprise. Now we are ready to admit that if there is anything that could justify a man in using forcible expletives it is the conduct of the Massachusetts dam builders. Such license, however, is not allowable under any circumstances to well-conducted and purely moral sheets, and when the World so far forgets itself as to allude to the "tinker's dam" it is stretching a point in morals by using words capable of double entendre, and we must fulfill a solemn duty and rebuke it.

After a long silence we read of the doings of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, which, if we remember aright, was organized some years since, and before the war, with the patriotic object of caring for the beautiful spot made immortal as the residence and burial place of Washington. The war, to a great extent, and as was natural, put a quietus on the ladies' work; but the war has been ended nearly ten years and the society has had abundant time to reorganize, or else quietly dissolve. We wonder if this late movement is a complete awakening, or merely a last muscular twitch preliminary to a demise? We wouldn't be surprised if it was the last, for American societies for erecting monuments or caring for historic landmarks are institutions we have little faith in.

The Wise Man of California.

Mr. James Lick of San Francisco has done one of the most sensible things we have lately heard of. Mr. Lick belongs to the order of millionaires. These people die just as other people do—there is to be some more elegance in the coffin trimmings, a few more plumes on the hearse, a longer string of carriages—but the same old Mother Earth receives them all. But the most of these millionaires leave a large share of their property to lawyers. They get some big-wig to make them a huge will, sprinkled full of "bequeaths" and "devises" and then breathe their last just quick enough to get out of the hubbub they have created. And then other big lawyers with still bigger wigs proceed to deliberately pick those wills to pieces, and gobble most of the property in the process.

But Mr. Lick has chosen the wiser part of dividing his own property, and has accordingly arranged to enrich San Francisco and California with establishments for which she would have had to wait ages in the ordinary course of events. There is to be the largest and best telescope in the observatory at Lake Tahoe, $700,000 being left for its purchase. Public monuments costing $420,000 are also to be erected, while $770,000 more is to be devoted to various objects of a public character. At the same time his relatives are amply provided for, and the old gentleman reserves a homestead and $25,000 per annum for himself.

There is great good sense in all this. What gratification Mr. Lick will have in watching these enterprises grow under his patronage, and if he should live until that magnificent telescope is finished what a delightful squint he will take at the heavens. Men won't say this was built with the money this man couldn't carry with him, but will gladly tell how he occupied his last years in benefitting humanity. Give us a few more Licks, who build such enduring monuments.

Starving Palestine.

The reverent student, who, in the various changes and vicissitudes that come upon this earth of ours, sees but the fulfillment of the grand prophecies of the Scriptures, the gradual unfolding and realization of the plans of the Almighty, will inevitably connect the presence of a famine in the land of Palestine with scriptural history and divine revelation. They will see in it the hand of Him who proclaimed Israel as his peculiar people and who condemned them for their obstinate offending to a punishment that has followed them to this day. To the theological aspect of the case we do not choose to refer—let the divines argue that out among themselves. But who can repress a sense of sadness as he turns from the beautiful picture of ancient Canaan and ancient Jerusalem in their beauty and glory to the modern Palestine and modern Jerusalem, in their wretchedness, squalor and hunger? A famine in Jerusalem! starvation in the Holy Land! Yet once Canaan flowed with milk and honey, its fruits and flowers were the wonder of the nations, its grain surpassed all others, its fertility of soil was only equalled by its deliciousness of climate. Jerusalem was the powerful citadel, the seat of pomp and power, its golden-roofed temple outdazzling all the splendid idol sanctuaries among the surrounding peoples. And to-day the land is barren and gives forth no fruit, famine stalks in gaunt horror among the people, and Jerusalem, beautiful for situation, shorn of its glory and its power, sits in hunger and poverty in sackcloth and ashes. Suggestive of earth's mutations, if of nothing more important, is the scene, and so we mention it. Let those who will draw the moral.

New Parties Proposed.

The lack of cohesion exhibited at this juncture in each of the two great political parties seems to prompt all manner of enthusiasts out of employment to take what they call in Wall street "a flyer" in the general market. Believing that ancient Democracy is a defunct bird in the pit and that Republicanism is rapidly disentegrating, these out-of-doors reformers are convening all about us and drawing new designs upon the political trestle-board. Two nicely-limned pictures of this character have caught our eye within a day or so past. One consists of a proposition made by the anti-Secret Society phalanx, just adjourned at Syracuse, to found a new party upon the basis of the delusion which possesses them—namely, the destruction of locks upon doors and the tearing away of invidious curtains from sacred places. We shall hardly get credit for the spirit of prophecy in predicting the total failure of this scheme. An enduring organization cannot be founded upon so flimsy a corner-stone. If we lived under a monarchy and the secret societies in our midst were justly or plausibly held to be plotting the overthrow of the state and if, furthermore, a majority of the people were heartily loyal to the reigning sovereign, there might easily be raised a strong and coherent party to work in opposition to them. But, without designing either to advocate or denounce the Masons, Odd Fellows and such, we nevertheless, from a purely uninterested point of view, fail to see a condition of things in our republic at all similar to that supposed above. Therefore, we expect in about six months from the date hereof to ask what has become of the movement agitated at Syracuse and to find no one who remembers that it was ever heard of. It will die in its soft and puling infancy as so many brave but senseless adventurers have done before. The other picture is of the temperance rhapsodists who are trying the ultra-logical process of upsetting what the good cause has already gained by making a distinct political issue of it in this state during the current season. It is useless to waste time and paper in the effort to show why they, too, will fail. Whether temperance will ever, or ought ever, to become the soul of party action, is a question we do not care now to discuss, but that the present moment is not opportune for it, will be granted by all thoughtful minds familiar with the actual situation of things. Parties cannot be manufactured to order, like coats or hats. When matters of pervading and vital concern in a nation's life press upon the popular attention, they will surely assume party form in proportion to their weight and present importance; but these curbstone speculators of whom we speak will learn after a while that to move the masses of the American people into new party grooves takes the lever of a tremendous reason combined with the advocacy of strong and magnetic men.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Rochefort is the best instance of French leave we've had in many a day.

—Rochefort says he is a child of nature.—Nature has some pretty hard specimens to father.

—M'lle Schneider wears a $16,000 diamond given her by the Prince of Wales. A big thing on Schneider; also, on Mrs. Wales.

—Massachusetts' new Governor is rushing things. He has already had a bill passed over his veto by the Senate.

—Sawyer has concluded to think better of it, and will resign, as his remaining "might embarrass the new Secretary." Very considerate on Sawyer's part.

—Jersey City's defaulting Treasurer, Hamilton, is making lots of trouble. The United States troops are after him in Mexico, but can't get him without a requisition.

—The Detroit Free Press don't mean to be fooled by the new party movement in Michigan. It says it is in favor of it if it succeeds and opposed to it if it fails. This seems to be pretty safe ground.

—Speer, the Paterson man who put up a flimsy building that fell down and killed several persons, has been acquitted. Jersey justice seems to be partaking of the flavor of the New York article.

—The World wants the women to crusade against the consumption of candy by babies. A great deal of harm could be prevented by checking this practice, although candy makers and doctors wouldn't get rich so fast.

—Alexander H. Stephens don't seem to be dying as much as he was. He is engaged in a lively war with Gen. B. H. Hill and bangs away at him in one of his little six-column paragraphs every day. In any other man this would seem to denote remarkable vigor.

—California bids fair to literally be a land flowing with honey. In Los Angeles the birth of bees is so unusually large that fears are entertained that the yield of honey will soon be so great that there will be no market.

—The Brooklyn Eagle is engaged in a nice war with certain New York papers, accusing them of all sorts of knavish work in connection with their exposures of the Brooklyn ring. And this is the first intimation we have heard from the Eagle that there is such a thing as the Brooklyn ring.

—Poor Shepherd! he, too, has found out what the people are going to do about it and is packing up in readiness to leave Washington at the shortest possible notice. He will soon be a shepherd without a flock, poor man! but we wouldn't be surprised if he had fleeced his pet lambs pretty well.

—The horrid spectre of trichina spiralis is again showing itself. A Harrisburg man ate raw ham and died, with "untold millions" of this active little worm among the tissues of his frame. Now, we suppose this will horrify thousands of people, but the obvious moral to be applied is simply—don't eat your ham raw.

—Alas! we fear our hopes for civil service reform are blasted. The committee of the House have reported against an appropriation for effecting the reform, and Ben Butler is one of that committee. If Ben had only stuck out for reform we wouldn't have given up yet; but now—nein!

—We are glad to hear of one disgusted Congressman, for they are few. Hon. W. K. Armstrong of Dakota declines a nomination for a third term, because "the office brings nothing but empty honors and a still more empty purse." But this has been a poor year for congressional purses.

—What ever may be said of Tom Scott's morality, his ability cannot be questioned. There are few men who can successfully run one small railroad, yet Scott is President of the Pennsylvania Company, the agency by which the Pennsylvania Railroad leases several western roads. He is also President of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad, and of the Texas Pacific Railroad, and of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, and Director in a large number of other roads. He is now by all odds the most prominent railroad man in the world. He is a railroad king because no one can or will rival him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Pauline Markham has arrived in Chicago and fallen a prey to the inevitable interviewer. Having married a respectable, steady-going citizen, she will hereafter abjure burlesque and settle down in some English country village.

—Under the new prison commutation law, fifty convicts were released from Auburn prison Monday. Their equipment, amount earned by overwork, mileage, &c., entailed an expense to the State of over $3,500. The highest amount paid any convict for overwork was $350.

—The old soldiers of Brattleboro, Vt., refused to have anything to do with the dedication of Jim Fisk's monument on memorial day. The monument is a costly and elaborate work from the chisel of Larkin Mead, the Vermont sculptor. It cost $25,000, which was paid for by his widow out of his life insurance money.

—The London Echo says it is very satisfactory to know that, amid all the changes of fashion, the condition of the work people employed in the occupation of dress-making has greatly improved. The sewing machine, to a great extent, relieves the seamstress of her drudgery. She is now expected, it is true, to show more taste and greater skill, but then she is better paid and more comfortably accommodated, and her working hours have been considerably curtailed.

—The eternal fitness of things was sadly overlooked in a recent provincial representation of the oratorio of "David," the "stripling" standing six feet two in his stockings, while the "giant marked" five feet three. In the famous "Challenge" duet the chorus and audience were so overcome by the drollity of the contrast that shouts of uncontrollable laughter drowned the voices of the singers.

—Emily Faithful says both the physician of Vassar College, Dr. Avery, and the professor of astronomy, Maria Mitchell, a woman whose reputation is as great in the New World as Mrs. Somerville's was in the Old, assured her that "the girls who studied the hardest at Vassar were the healthiest." They traced the bad health of American women to its true source—the terrible severity and extremes of climate, combined with the unwholesome habit of heating houses by furnaces, to the exclusion of all proper ventilation, and the widespread disinclination to physical exercise of any discription. "I venture to add that the delicacy complained of is also due to the fearful rapidity with which our American cousins apply the rule of doing "smartly" whatever they have in hand, to their meals, and to the intemperate use of iced water throughout winter and summer."

TELEGRAPH.

REGULAR DISPATCHES TO DAILY FREEMAN

FOREIGN.

ITALY.

His Holiness Improving.

ROME, June 5.—The Pope was able to celebrate mass this morning and subsequently walked to his library. He is very feeble, but the fever has left him.

SPAIN.

The Cartagena Rebels.

MADRID, June 5.—Five hundred convicts engaged in the rebellion at Cartagena have been embarked on a Spanish steamer at Oron, to be taken back to Spain. Over $200,000 worth of plunder was found in their possession.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Opening and Closing of Public Houses.

LONDON, June 5.—The House of Commons last night, by a vote of 61 to 126, adopted the propositions of the government that public houses in this city shall be kept open on week days from 7 o'clock in the morning until 12:30 at night. The House also, by a vote of 382 to 43, approved the government's proposal that such houses shall be opened on the same days in towns having over 250 population from 7 A. M. to 11 P. M., and in towns with a less number of people from 6 A. M. to 10 P. M.

During the evening Disraeli said he would take occasion to correct the misapprehension that this would be a short session. Seven bills of extra importance were to be presented to Parliament and they would be introduced at an early day, and if members frittered away time the session, instead of being short, would be unusually long.

FRANCE.

The Catholic Pilgrims.

PARIS, June 5.—The American pilgrims to-day went in procession to the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes. They carried the American flag. A large crowd witnessed the procession and uncovered and saluted the pilgrims with loud cheers as they passed. A sacred banner, which was brought from America, was presented at the shrine. At the close of the ceremonies the pilgrims proceeded to Marseilles to take the steamer. All were in good health.

The Postal Treaty with the United States.

PARIS, June 5.—Duke Decazes to-day had a conference with the committee of the Assembly on a postal convention with the United States. He said the arrangement under consideration was only to serve as a transition to a more liberal system, which would be embraced in an additional convention hereafter.

Sentence of a Communist.

A council of war has pronounced a verdict of guilty against Melville Bloncourt, Deputy for Guadaloupe, for participation in the acts of the commune, and condemned him to death in contumaciam.

Le Pays newspaper says the friends of the Prince Imperial strongly oppose the nomination of Prince Jerome Napoleon for the Assembly.

It is rumored a duel has grown out of the violent proceedings in the Assembly last Tuesday.

THE CURRENCY.

A New Bill Agreed On.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Washington specials say that the conference committees of the two Houses on the currency question have agreed on two features which they will report to-day. First, that the amount of greenbacks to be retired and issued shall be equal to 37½ per cent. of the latter. Second, that the redemption of legal tenders in gold or bonds, at the government's option, shall begin in January.

A Tribune dispatch says that no one, as far as can be learned, has any assurance that the President will sign the bill containing these provisions. It is well known that one of the most cherished hopes of Grant is that specie payments will be resumed during his administration. With this view he discusses the policy of repealing the legal tender act to take effect July, 1875, and is in favor of retiring greenbacks at the rate that they would all be called in by July, 1876. He thinks this could be done under the free banking law without injury to business. He also urges an amendment of the National Banking act, so that no notes of less denomination than $10 shall be issued, and expresses his belief that if no bank had issued bills less than $10 since 1850, there would have been no need of suspension of specie payment.

THE REFORMED SYNOD.

Revision of the Liturgy.

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 5.—The Synod of the Reformed Church to day was occupied mostly by discussion of the report of the committee appointed to revise the liturgy.

Rev. Dr. Gans declared the revised liturgy should be placed before the Classes for deliberation, and charged that it was leading to ritualism.

Rev. A. M. Mann opposed any tinkering with the liturgy whatever.

Some of the members favored striking out the liturgy, which brought out the assertion from another member that he did not believe eight churches of the American Synod worshipped alike. Several times there was much confusion in the discussion. Finally the following resolution offered by Elder Pruyn was adopted:

Resolved, That the Synod approve of so much of the liturgy reported by the committee as is not inconsistent with or forbidden by the constitution, and give permission to use the same, this resolution not sanctioning any change in the baptismal form or form of administration of the Lord's supper.

The revised liturgy thus adopted almost entirely revolutionizes the services of marriage, burial, laying of the corner stone of a church or chapel and dedication of a church or chapel. The churches in the various Classes, however, have permission to use it or not as they deem proper. The Synod adjourns at noon to-morrow until Monday, 11 A. M. To-day the clergymen, upon invitation, visited Vassar College and partook of a collation.

TENNESSEE.

Civil Rights and Razors.

MEMPHIS, June 5.—A dangerously bitter feeling exists here between the whites and blacks. Last Monday, in a dispute about the civil rights bill, a white man was dangerously cut by a negro with a razor. Some of the white man's friends seized and doubtless would have lynched the negro, but during the excitement caused by an alarm of fire he managed to escape. The arrest of Thomas Swan, a leading colored politician, has embittered the negroes.

The Ledger reports that negroes formerly in the Union army have obtained arms and drill nightly in secret.

ARKANSAS.

Brooks Unmolested.

LITTLE ROCK, June 5.—Several of those arrested for treason have been discharged on bail. Brooks appears in the streets daily and is not molested.

BOWDOIN.

Return of the Freshmen.

PORTLAND, Me., June 5.—The freshman class of Bowdoin College has returned on conditions proposed by the faculty.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Cannon's Case.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Committee on Elections, by a vote of 6 against 5, agreed not to report the resolution of Hazelton reciting that Cannon had proved to be a polygamist, having married one of his wives since the passage of the anti-polygamy law of 1862, and therefore should be expelled. The committee also voted down the resolution postponing all action on the case, but it is generally believed that further consideration of the question will be postponed till the next session.

Postage on Newspapers and Periodicals.

The House Post Office Committee have agreed to report a bill providing that on all newspapers and periodicals mailed from the known office of publication or news agency, and addressed to regular subscribers or news agents, postage shall be charged at the following rates: Newspapers and periodicals issued weekly and more frequently than once a week, one cent and a half; and on those issued less frequently than once a week, three cents for each pound or fraction of a pound. On the receipt of such newspapers and periodicals at the office of mailing they are to be weighed in bulk and postage paid thereon by special adhesive stamps. Newspapers, one copy to each actual subscriber residing within the county where the same are printed in whole or in part and published, go free through the mails, but the same shall not be delivered at letter-carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless the postage is paid thereon as by law provided, and newspapers and magazines reciprocally interchanged between publishers, not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, to be confined to a single copy of each publication, go free through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not exceeding four pounds for each package thereof, and postage shall be charged thereon at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be held to change or amend Section 134 of said act. Affidavits are to be made by publishers or news agents to secure their adherence to these provisions, for violation of which penalties are prescribed.

The amendments proposed by the Senate Appropriation Committee to the post office appropriation bill provides that postage on all mailable matter shall hereafter be prepaid at the time of mailing, and to restrict the free delivery system to cities having a population of not less than 30,000, instead of 20,000, as fixed by the House and to strike out the House provision that the Department of Agriculture reports shall pass free through the mails.

The President Sound on the Financial Question.

President Grant, in reply to a written request of Senator Jones of Nevada, has sent to that gentleman a memorandum of his views on the financial question, which he recently prepared and read to several members of Congress. It says: "I believe it a high and plain duty to return to a specie basis at the earliest practicable day, not only in compliance with legislative and party pledges, but as a step indispensable to lasting national prosperity. I believe further that the time has come when this can be done, or at least begun, with less embarrassment to every branch of industry than at any future time. Resort has been had to unstable and temporary expedients to stimulate unreal prosperity and speculation on a basis other than coin as the recognized medium of exchange throughout the commercial world. The particular mode selected to bring about a restoration of the specie standard is not of so much consequence as that some adequate plan be devised, the time fixed when currency shall be exchangeable for coin at par and the plan adopted rigidly adhered to. It is not probable that any legislation suggested by me would prove acceptable to both branches of Congress, and indeed a full discussion might shake my own faith in the details of any plan I might propose. I will, however, venture to state the general features of the action which seem to me advisable, the financial platform on which I would stand and any departure from which I would accept in a spirit of concession and harmony, in deference to conflicting opinions: First, I would like to see the legal tender clause so-called repealed, the repeal to take effect at a future time, say July 1st, 1875. This would cause all contracts made after that date for wages, sales, etc., to be estimated in coin, it would correct our notions of values and the specie dollar would be the only dollar known as the measure or equivalent where debts afterwards contracted were paid in currency. Instead of calling the paper dollar a dollar and quoting gold at so much premium, we should think and speak of paper as at so much discount. This alone would aid greatly in bringing the two currencies nearer together at par. Second, I would like to see a provision that at a fixed day, say July 1st, 1876, the currency of the United States should be redeemed in coin on presentation to any Assistant Treasurer, and that all the currency so redeemed should be cancelled and never reissued. To effect this, it would be necessary to authorize the issue of bonds payable in gold, bearing such interest as would command par in gold, to be put out by the Treasury only in such sums as should from time to time be needed for the purpose of redemption. Such legislation would insure a return to sound financial principles in two years, and would, in my judgment, work less hardship to the debtor interest, than is likely to come from putting off the day of final reckoning. It must be borne in mind, too, that the creditor interest had its day of disadvantage also, when our present financial system was brought in by the supreme needs of the nation. I would further provide that from and after the date fixed for redemption no bills, whether of national banks or of the United States returned to the Treasury to be exchanged for new bills, should be replaced by bills of less denomination than $10, and that in one year after resumption all bills of less than $5 sho'd be withdrawn from circulation, and in two years all bills of less than $10 should be withdrawn. The advantage of this would be the strength given to the country against a time of depression resulting from war, failure of crops or any other cause by keeping always in the hands of the people a large supply of the precious metals. With all the smaller transactions conducted in coin, many millions of it would be kept in constant use and of course prevented from leaving the country. Undoubtedly a poorer currency will always drive the better out of circulation, and with paper a legal tender and at a discount gold and silver become articles of merchandise as much as wheat and cotton, and the surplus will find the best market it can. With small bills in circulation there is no use for coin except to keep it in the vaults of banks to redeem circulation during periods of great speculation and apparent prosperity, and when there is little demand for coin it will flow out to a market where it can be made to earn something, which it cannot do while lying idle. Gold, like anything else, when not needed becomes a surplus, and like every other surplus it seeks a market where it can find one. By giving active employment to coin, however, its presence can, it seems to me, be secured and the panics and depressions which have occurred periodically in times of nominal specie payments if they cannot be wholly prevented can at least be greatly mitigated; indeed, I question whether it would have been found necessary to depart from the standard of specie in the trying days which gave birth to the first legal tender act had the country taken the ground of no small bills as early as 1850. Again, I would provide an excess of revenue over current expenditures. I would do this by rigid economy and by taxation where taxation can best be borne. Increased revenue would work a constant reduction of the debt and interest and would provide coin to meet demands on the Treasury for the redemption of its notes, thereby diminishing the amount of bonds needed for that purpose. All taxes after redemption begins should be paid in coin or United States notes, and this would force redemption on the national banks. With measures like these, on measures which would work out such results, I see no danger in authorizing free banking without limit."

Presenting of Credentials.

Dalla Costa, the Venezuelan Minister, presented his credentials to the President to-day. The customary friendly speeches were exchanged.

Senor Bernard, hitherto Minister Resident, who has been recently promoted Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Nicaragua, also waited on the President to-day with his new credentials. In his speech he alluded to the interest taken and efforts made by the United States in the great work of uniting the Atlantic and Pacific by canal. He hoped Nicaragua would be chosen for that route, and believed the scheme, long regarded as a chimera, would be made a reality whenever this nation should lend its powerful aid. His Government would do all in its power to co-operate with the United States. The President, replying, said the people of the United States are deeply interested in the prosperity of the American republics, and will see with pleasure the completion of any work which may promote it. Especially will they regard with satisfaction the construction of ship canals between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans whenever it may be found possible to construct them to advantage.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The bill for the sale and distribution of public documents was considered and amended. It makes provision for the printing and free distribution through the mails of 200,000 copies of agricultural reports. Pending the bill the Senate adjourned till Monday, when Sherman will call up the moiety bill.

HOUSE.

THE TRANSPORTATION BILL.

Mr. GARFIELD asked leave to offer a substitute for the bill.

Mr. HURLBUT refused to allow the substitute to be offered.

A vote was then taken on the substitute offered by McCray, which is to provide for the construction of the Fort St. Philip Canal and its maintenance as a national highway. Adopted, and the bill as thus amended was passed—yeas 140, nays 80.

Some two hours were then spent over private bills, but only two were passed. The House then took a recess until 7:30 P. M., the evening session to be for business of the Committee on Public Lands.

The House in evening session passed the bill appointing a commission to report on the occupation, ownership, and disposition of lands awarded to the United States by the Emperor of Germany, under the treaty of Washington.

Mr. MORREY, of La., from the Public Lands Committee, reported a bill to repeal the first section of the act of the 21st of June, 1856, for the disposal of public lands for homesteads to actual settlers in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and Arkansas. The bill was discussed at considerable length. Its object is to allow public lands in the South, which were after the war reserved for settlement by the freedmen, to be sold as they are in other sections of the country. It was strenuously opposed by Conger, Willard, Hawley and Holman.

Mr. TOWNSEND, Chairman of the committee, said the object was to put the people of the south in the same position in regard to public lands as the people of the north. The bill was recommitted, which is tantamount to a rejection.

The bill for the sale of the Kansas Indians' lands in Kansas to actual settlers was ordered to a third reading, but could not be finally passed, a quorum not being present.

Kingston, Saturday Morning, June 6.

We cheerfully beg Gen. Butler's pardon for crediting him with a good deed which he has made characteristic haste to disavow. He did not report his committee as in favor of the remission of Miss Anthony's fine; he only wanted an account of her case printed for the consideration of the committee. The Essex statesman is all the more welcome to this apology for our mistake because his explanation enables us to admire afresh that perfect consistency in him by which he never does a right thing if he can help it. And he commonly can help it.

We are shocked at the World, which is usually such a model of propriety that we look upon any little verbal indiscretion it may commit with sad surprise. Now we are ready to admit that if there is anything that could justify a man in using forcible expletives it is the conduct of the Massachusetts dam builders. Such license, however, is not allowable under any circumstances to well-conducted and purely moral sheets, and when the World so far forgets itself as to allude to the "tinker's dam" it is stretching a point in morals by using words capable of double entendre, and we must fulfill a solemn duty and rebuke it.

After a long silence we read of the doings of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, which, if we remember aright, was organized some years since, and before the war, with the patriotic object of caring for the beautiful spot made immortal as the residence and burial place of Washington. The war, to a great extent, and as was natural, put a quietus on the ladies' work; but the war has been ended nearly ten years and the society has had abundant time to reorganize, or else quietly dissolve. We wonder if this late movement is a complete awakening, or merely a last muscular twitch preliminary to a demise? We wouldn't be surprised if it was the last, for American societies for erecting monuments or caring for historic landmarks are institutions we have little faith in.

The Wise Man of California.

Mr. James Lick of San Francisco has done one of the most sensible things we have lately heard of. Mr. Lick belongs to the order of millionaires. These people die just as other people do—there is to be some more elegance in the coffin trimmings, a few more plumes on the hearse, a longer string of carriages—but the same old Mother Earth receives them all. But the most of these millionaires leave a large share of their property to lawyers. They get some big-wig to make them a huge will, sprinkled full of "bequeaths" and "devises" and then breathe their last just quick enough to get out of the hubbub they have created. And then other big lawyers with still bigger wigs proceed to deliberately pick those wills to pieces, and gobble most of the property in the process.

But Mr. Lick has chosen the wiser part of dividing his own property, and has accordingly arranged to enrich San Francisco and California with establishments for which she would have had to wait ages in the ordinary course of events. There is to be the largest and best telescope in the observatory at Lake Tahoe, $700,000 being left for its purchase. Public monuments costing $420,000 are also to be erected, while $770,000 more is to be devoted to various objects of a public character. At the same time his relatives are amply provided for, and the old gentleman reserves a homestead and $25,000 per annum for himself.

There is great good sense in all this. What gratification Mr. Lick will have in watching these enterprises grow under his patronage, and if he should live until that magnificent telescope is finished what a delightful squint he will take at the heavens. Men won't say this was built with the money this man couldn't carry with him, but will gladly tell how he occupied his last years in benefitting humanity. Give us a few more Licks, who build such enduring monuments.

Starving Palestine.

The reverent student, who, in the various changes and vicissitudes that come upon this earth of ours, sees but the fulfillment of the grand prophecies of the Scriptures, the gradual unfolding and realization of the plans of the Almighty, will inevitably connect the presence of a famine in the land of Palestine with scriptural history and divine revelation. They will see in it the hand of Him who proclaimed Israel as his peculiar people and who condemned them for their obstinate offending to a punishment that has followed them to this day. To the theological aspect of the case we do not choose to refer—let the divines argue that out among themselves. But who can repress a sense of sadness as he turns from the beautiful picture of ancient Canaan and ancient Jerusalem in their beauty and glory to the modern Palestine and modern Jerusalem, in their wretchedness, squalor and hunger? A famine in Jerusalem! starvation in the Holy Land! Yet once Canaan flowed with milk and honey, its fruits and flowers were the wonder of the nations, its grain surpassed all others, its fertility of soil was only equalled by its deliciousness of climate. Jerusalem was the powerful citadel, the seat of pomp and power, its golden-roofed temple outdazzling all the splendid idol sanctuaries among the surrounding peoples. And to-day the land is barren and gives forth no fruit, famine stalks in gaunt horror among the people, and Jerusalem, beautiful for situation, shorn of its glory and its power, sits in hunger and poverty in sackcloth and ashes. Suggestive of earth's mutations, if of nothing more important, is the scene, and so we mention it. Let those who will draw the moral.

New Parties Proposed.

The lack of cohesion exhibited at this juncture in each of the two great political parties seems to prompt all manner of enthusiasts out of employment to take what they call in Wall street "a flyer" in the general market. Believing that ancient Democracy is a defunct bird in the pit and that Republicanism is rapidly disentegrating, these out-of-doors reformers are convening all about us and drawing new designs upon the political trestle-board. Two nicely-limned pictures of this character have caught our eye within a day or so past. One consists of a proposition made by the anti-Secret Society phalanx, just adjourned at Syracuse, to found a new party upon the basis of the delusion which possesses them—namely, the destruction of locks upon doors and the tearing away of invidious curtains from sacred places. We shall hardly get credit for the spirit of prophecy in predicting the total failure of this scheme. An enduring organization cannot be founded upon so flimsy a corner-stone. If we lived under a monarchy and the secret societies in our midst were justly or plausibly held to be plotting the overthrow of the state and if, furthermore, a majority of the people were heartily loyal to the reigning sovereign, there might easily be raised a strong and coherent party to work in opposition to them. But, without designing either to advocate or denounce the Masons, Odd Fellows and such, we nevertheless, from a purely uninterested point of view, fail to see a condition of things in our republic at all similar to that supposed above. Therefore, we expect in about six months from the date hereof to ask what has become of the movement agitated at Syracuse and to find no one who remembers that it was ever heard of. It will die in its soft and puling infancy as so many brave but senseless adventurers have done before. The other picture is of the temperance rhapsodists who are trying the ultra-logical process of upsetting what the good cause has already gained by making a distinct political issue of it in this state during the current season. It is useless to waste time and paper in the effort to show why they, too, will fail. Whether temperance will ever, or ought ever, to become the soul of party action, is a question we do not care now to discuss, but that the present moment is not opportune for it, will be granted by all thoughtful minds familiar with the actual situation of things. Parties cannot be manufactured to order, like coats or hats. When matters of pervading and vital concern in a nation's life press upon the popular attention, they will surely assume party form in proportion to their weight and present importance; but these curbstone speculators of whom we speak will learn after a while that to move the masses of the American people into new party grooves takes the lever of a tremendous reason combined with the advocacy of strong and magnetic men.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Rochefort is the best instance of French leave we've had in many a day.

—Rochefort says he is a child of nature.—Nature has some pretty hard specimens to father.

—M'lle Schneider wears a $16,000 diamond given her by the Prince of Wales. A big thing on Schneider; also, on Mrs. Wales.

—Massachusetts' new Governor is rushing things. He has already had a bill passed over his veto by the Senate.

—Sawyer has concluded to think better of it, and will resign, as his remaining "might embarrass the new Secretary." Very considerate on Sawyer's part.

—Jersey City's defaulting Treasurer, Hamilton, is making lots of trouble. The United States troops are after him in Mexico, but can't get him without a requisition.

—The Detroit Free Press don't mean to be fooled by the new party movement in Michigan. It says it is in favor of it if it succeeds and opposed to it if it fails. This seems to be pretty safe ground.

—Speer, the Paterson man who put up a flimsy building that fell down and killed several persons, has been acquitted. Jersey justice seems to be partaking of the flavor of the New York article.

—The World wants the women to crusade against the consumption of candy by babies. A great deal of harm could be prevented by checking this practice, although candy makers and doctors wouldn't get rich so fast.

—Alexander H. Stephens don't seem to be dying as much as he was. He is engaged in a lively war with Gen. B. H. Hill and bangs away at him in one of his little six-column paragraphs every day. In any other man this would seem to denote remarkable vigor.

—California bids fair to literally be a land flowing with honey. In Los Angeles the birth of bees is so unusually large that fears are entertained that the yield of honey will soon be so great that there will be no market.

—The Brooklyn Eagle is engaged in a nice war with certain New York papers, accusing them of all sorts of knavish work in connection with their exposures of the Brooklyn ring. And this is the first intimation we have heard from the Eagle that there is such a thing as the Brooklyn ring.

—Poor Shepherd! he, too, has found out what the people are going to do about it and is packing up in readiness to leave Washington at the shortest possible notice. He will soon be a shepherd without a flock, poor man! but we wouldn't be surprised if he had fleeced his pet lambs pretty well.

—The horrid spectre of trichina spiralis is again showing itself. A Harrisburg man ate raw ham and died, with "untold millions" of this active little worm among the tissues of his frame. Now, we suppose this will horrify thousands of people, but the obvious moral to be applied is simply—don't eat your ham raw.

—Alas! we fear our hopes for civil service reform are blasted. The committee of the House have reported against an appropriation for effecting the reform, and Ben Butler is one of that committee. If Ben had only stuck out for reform we wouldn't have given up yet; but now—nein!

—We are glad to hear of one disgusted Congressman, for they are few. Hon. W. K. Armstrong of Dakota declines a nomination for a third term, because "the office brings nothing but empty honors and a still more empty purse." But this has been a poor year for congressional purses.

—What ever may be said of Tom Scott's morality, his ability cannot be questioned. There are few men who can successfully run one small railroad, yet Scott is President of the Pennsylvania Company, the agency by which the Pennsylvania Railroad leases several western roads. He is also President of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad, and of the Texas Pacific Railroad, and of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, and Director in a large number of other roads. He is now by all odds the most prominent railroad man in the world. He is a railroad king because no one can or will rival him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Pauline Markham has arrived in Chicago and fallen a prey to the inevitable interviewer. Having married a respectable, steady-going citizen, she will hereafter abjure burlesque and settle down in some English country village.

—Under the new prison commutation law, fifty convicts were released from Auburn prison Monday. Their equipment, amount earned by overwork, mileage, &c., entailed an expense to the State of over $3,500. The highest amount paid any convict for overwork was $350.

—The old soldiers of Brattleboro, Vt., refused to have anything to do with the dedication of Jim Fisk's monument on memorial day. The monument is a costly and elaborate work from the chisel of Larkin Mead, the Vermont sculptor. It cost $25,000, which was paid for by his widow out of his life insurance money.

—The London Echo says it is very satisfactory to know that, amid all the changes of fashion, the condition of the work people employed in the occupation of dress-making has greatly improved. The sewing machine, to a great extent, relieves the seamstress of her drudgery. She is now expected, it is true, to show more taste and greater skill, but then she is better paid and more comfortably accommodated, and her working hours have been considerably curtailed.

—The eternal fitness of things was sadly overlooked in a recent provincial representation of the oratorio of "David," the "stripling" standing six feet two in his stockings, while the "giant marked" five feet three. In the famous "Challenge" duet the chorus and audience were so overcome by the drollity of the contrast that shouts of uncontrollable laughter drowned the voices of the singers.

—Emily Faithful says both the physician of Vassar College, Dr. Avery, and the professor of astronomy, Maria Mitchell, a woman whose reputation is as great in the New World as Mrs. Somerville's was in the Old, assured her that "the girls who studied the hardest at Vassar were the healthiest." They traced the bad health of American women to its true source—the terrible severity and extremes of climate, combined with the unwholesome habit of heating houses by furnaces, to the exclusion of all proper ventilation, and the widespread disinclination to physical exercise of any discription. "I venture to add that the delicacy complained of is also due to the fearful rapidity with which our American cousins apply the rule of doing 'smartly' whatever they have in hand, to their meals, and to the intemperate use of iced water throughout winter and summer."

Opening and Closing of Public Houses.

LONDON, June 5.—The House of Commons last night, by a vote of 61 to 126, adopted the propositions of the government that public houses in this city shall be kept open on week days from 7 o'clock in the morning until 12:30 at night. The House also, by a vote of 382 to 43, approved the government's proposal that such houses shall be opened on the same days in towns having over 250 population from 7 A. M. to 11 P. M., and in towns with a less number of people from 6 A. M. to 10 P. M.

During the evening Disraeli said he would take occasion to correct the misapprehension that this would be a short session. Seven bills of extra importance were to be presented to Parliament and they would be introduced at an early day, and if members frittered away time the session, instead of being short, would be unusually long.

FRANCE.

The Catholic Pilgrims.

PARIS, June 5.—The American pilgrims to-day went in procession to the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes. They carried the American flag. A large crowd witnessed the procession and uncovered and saluted the pilgrims with loud cheers as they passed. A sacred banner, which was brought from America, was presented at the shrine. At the close of the ceremonies the pilgrims proceeded to Marseilles to take the steamer. All were in good health.

The Postal Treaty with the United States.

PARIS, June 5.—Duke Decazes to-day had a conference with the committee of the Assembly on a postal convention with the United States. He said the arrangement under consideration was only to serve as a transition to a more liberal system, which would be embraced in an additional convention hereafter.

A council of war has pronounced a verdict of guilty against Melville Bloncourt, Deputy for Guadaloupe, for participation in the acts of the commune, and condemned him to death in contumaciam.

Le Pays newspaper says the friends of the Prince imperial strongly oppose the nomination of Prince Jerome Napoleon for the Assembly.

It is rumored a duel has grown out of the violent proceedings in the Assembly last Tuesday.

THE CURRENCY.

A New Bill Agreed On.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Washington specials say that the conference committees of the two Houses on the currency question have agreed on two features which they will report to-day. First, that the amount of greenbacks to be retired and issued shall be equal to 37½ per cent. of the latter. Second, that the redemption of legal tenders in gold or bonds, at the government's option, shall begin in January.

A Tribune dispatch says that no one, as far as can be learned, has any assurance that the President will sign the bill containing these provisions. It is well known that one of the most cherished hopes of Grant is that specie payments will be resumed during his administration. With this view he discusses the policy of repealing the legal tender act to take effect July, 1875, and is in favor of retiring greenbacks at the rate that they would all be called in by July, 1876. He thinks this could be done under the free banking law without injury to business. He also urges an amendment of the National Banking act, so that no notes of less denomination than $10 shall be issued, and expresses his belief that if no bank had issued bills less than $10 since 1850, there would have been no need of suspension of specie payment.

THE REFORMED SYNOD.

Revision of the Liturgy.

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 5.—The Synod of the Reformed Church to-day was occupied mostly by discussion of the report of the committee appointed to revise the liturgy.

Rev. Dr. Gaus declared the revised liturgy should be placed before the Classes for deliberation, and charged that it was leading to ritualism.

Rev. A. M. Mann opposed any tinkering with the liturgy whatever.

Some of the members favored striking out the liturgy, which brought out the assertion from another member that he did not believe eight churches of the American Synod worshipped alike. Several times there was much confusion in the discussion. Finally the following resolution offered by Elder Pruyn was adopted:

Resolved, That the Synod approve of so much of the liturgy reported by the committee as is not inconsistent with or forbidden by the constitution, and give permission to use the same, this resolution not sanctioning any change in the baptismal form or form of administration of the Lord's supper.

The revised liturgy thus adopted almost entirely revolutionizes the services of marriage, burial, laying of the corner stone of a church or chapel and dedication of a church or chapel. The churches in the various Classes, however, have permission to use it or not as they deem proper. The Synod adjourns at noon to-morrow until Monday, 11 A. M. To-day the clergymen, upon invitation, visited Vassar College and partook of a collation.

TENNESSEE.

Civil Rights and Razors.

MEMPHIS, June 5.—A dangerously bitter feeling exists here between the whites and blacks. Last Monday, in a dispute about the civil rights bill, a white man was dangerously cut by a negro with a razor. Some of the white man's friends seized and doubtless would have lynched the negro, but during the excitement caused by an alarm of fire he managed to escape. The arrest of Thomas Swan, a leading colored politician, has embittered the negroes.

The Ledger reports that negroes formerly in the Union army have obtained arms and drill nightly in secret.

ARKANSAS.

Brooks Unmolested.

LITTLE ROCK, June 5.—Several of those arrested for treason have been discharged on bail. Brooks appears in the streets daily and is not molested.

BOWDOIN.

Return of the Freshmen.

PORTLAND, Me., June 5.—The freshman class of Bowdoin College has returned on conditions proposed by the faculty.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Cannon's Case.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Committee on Elections, by a vote of 6 against 5, agreed not to report the resolution of Hazelton reciting that Cannon had proved to be a polygamist, having married one of his wives since the passage of the anti-polygamy law of 1862, and therefore should be expelled. The committee also voted down the resolution postponing all action on the case, but it is generally believed that further consideration of the question will be postponed till the next session.

Postage on Newspapers and Periodicals.

The House Post Office Committee have agreed to report a bill providing that on all newspapers and periodicals mailed from the known office of publication or news agency, and addressed to regular subscribers or news agents, postage shall be charged at the following rates: Newspapers and periodicals issued weekly and more frequently than once a week, one cent and a half; and on those issued less frequently than once a week, three cents for each pound or fraction of a pound. On the receipt of such newspapers and periodicals at the office of mailing they are to be weighed in bulk and postage paid thereon by special adhesive stamps. Newspapers, one copy to each actual subscriber residing within the county where the same are printed in whole or in part and published, go free through the mails, but the same shall not be delivered at letter-carrier offices or distributed by carriers unless the postage is paid thereon as by law provided, and newspapers and magazines reciprocally interchanged between publishers, not exceeding sixteen ounces in weight, to be confined to a single copy of each publication, go free through the mails. All mailable matter of the third class may weigh not exceeding four pounds for each package thereof, and postage shall be charged thereon at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be held to change or amend Section 134 of said act. Affidavits are to be made by publishers or news agents to secure their adherence to these provisions, for violation of which penalties are prescribed.

The amendments proposed by the Senate Appropriation Committee to the post office appropriation bill provides that postage on all mailable matter shall hereafter be prepaid at the time of mailing, and to restrict the free delivery system to cities having a population of not less than 30,000, instead of 20,000, as fixed by the House and to strike out the House provision that the Department of Agriculture reports shall pass free through the mails.

The President Sound on the Financial Question.

President Grant, in reply to a written request of Senator Jones of Nevada, has sent to that gentleman a memorandum of his views on the financial question, which he recently prepared and read to several members of Congress. It says: "I believe it a high and plain duty to return to a specie basis at the earliest practicable day, not only in compliance with legislative and party pledges, but as a step indispensable to lasting national prosperity. I believe further that the time has come when this can be done, or at least begun, with less embarrassment to every branch of industry than at any future time. Resort has been had to unstable and temporary expedients to stimulate unreal prosperity and speculation on a basis other than coin as the recognized medium of exchange throughout the commercial world. The particular mode selected to bring about a restoration of the specie standard is not of so much consequence as that some adequate plan be devised, the time fixed when currency shall be exchangeable for coin at par and the plan adopted rigidly adhered to. It is not probable that any legislation suggested by me would prove acceptable to both branches of Congress, and indeed a full discussion might shake my own faith in the details of any plan I might propose. I will, however, venture to state the general features of the action which seem to me advisable, the financial platform on which I would stand and any departure from which I would accept in a spirit of concession and harmony, in deference to conflicting opinions: First, I would like to see the legal tender clause socalled repealed, the repeal to take effect at a future time, say July 1st, 1875. This would cause all contracts made after that date for wages, sales, etc., to be estimated in coin, it would correct our notions of values and the specie dollar would be the only dollar known as the measure or equivalent where debts afterwards contracted were paid in currency. Instead of calling the paper dollar a dollar and quoting gold at so much premium, we should think and speak of paper as at so much discount. This alone would aid greatly in bringing the two currencies nearer together at par. Second, I would like to see a provision that at a fixed day, say July 1st, 1876, the currency of the United States should be redeemed in coin on presentation to any Assistant Treasurer, and that all the currency so redeemed should be cancelled and never reissued. To effect this, it would be necessary to authorize the issue of bonds payable in gold, bearing such interest as would command par in gold, to be put out by the Treasury only in such sums as should from time to time be needed for the purpose of redemption. Such legislation would insure a return to sound financial principles in two years, and would, in my judgment, work less hardship to the debtor interest, than is likely to come from putting off the day of final reckoning. It must be borne in mind, too, that the creditor interest had its day of disadvantage also, when our present financial system was brought in by the supreme needs of the nation. I would further provide that from and after the date fixed for redemption no bills, whether of national banks or of the United States returned to the Treasury to be exchanged for new bills, should be replaced by bills of less denomination than $10, and that in one year after resumption all bills of less than $5 sho'd be withdrawn from circulation, and in two years all bills of less than $10 should be withdrawn. The advantage of this would be the strength given to the country against a time of depression resulting from war, failure of crops or any other cause by keeping always in the hands of the people a large supply of the precious metals. With all the smaller transactions conducted in coin, many millions of it would be kept in constant use and of course prevented from leaving the country. Undoubtedly a poorer currency will always drive the better out of circulation, and with paper a legal tender and at a discount gold and silver become articles of merchandise as much as wheat and cotton, and the surplus will find the best market it can. With small bills in circulation there is no use for coin except to keep it in the vaults of banks to redeem circulation during periods of great speculation and apparent prosperity, and when there is little demand for coin it will flow out to a market where it can be made to earn something, which it cannot do while lying idle. Gold, like anything else, when not needed becomes a surplus, and like every other surplus it seeks a market where it can find one. By giving active employment to coin, however, its presence can, it seems to me, be secured and the panics and depressions which have occurred periodically in times of nominal specie payments if they cannot be wholly prevented can at least be greatly mitigated; indeed, I question whether it would have been found necessary to depart from the standard of specie in the trying days which gave birth to the first legal tender act had the country taken the ground of no small bills as early as 1850. Again, I would provide an excess of revenue over current expenditures. I would do this by rigid economy and by taxation where taxation can best be borne. Increased revenue would work a constant reduction of the debt and interest and would provide coin to meet demands on the Treasury for the redemption of its notes, thereby diminishing the amount of bonds needed for that purpose. All taxes after redemption begins should be paid in coin or United States notes, and this would force redemption on the national banks. With measures like these, on measures which would work out such results, I see no danger in authorizing free banking without limit."

Presenting of Credentials.

Dalla Costa, the Venezuelan Minister, presented his credentials to the President to-day. The customary friendly speeches were exchanged.

Senor Bernard, hitherto Minister Resident, who has been recently promoted Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Nicaragua, also waited on the President today with his new credentials. In his speech he alluded to the interest taken and efforts made by the United States in the great work of uniting the Atlantic and Pacific by canal. He hoped Nicaragua would be chosen for that route, and believed the scheme, long regarded as a chimera, would be made a reality whenever this nation should lend its powerful aid. His Government would do all in its power to co-operate with the United States. The President, replying, said the people of the United States are deeply interested in the prosperity of the American republics, and will see with pleasure the completion of any work which may promote it. Especially will they regard with satisfaction the construction of ship canals between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans whenever it may be found possible to construct them to advantage.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The bill for the sale and distribution of public documents was considered and amended. It makes provision for the printing and free distribution through the mails of 200,000 copies of agricultural reports. Pending the bill the Senate adjourned till Monday, when Sherman will call up the moiety bill.

HOUSE.

THE TRANSPORTATION BILL.

Mr. GARFIELD asked leave to offer a substitute for the bill.

Mr. HURLBUT refused to allow the substitute to be offered.

A vote was then taken on the substitute offered by McCray, which is to provide for the construction of the Fort St. Philip Canal and its maintenance as a national highway. Adopted, and the bill as thus amended was passed—yeas 140, nays 80.

Some two hours were then spent over private bills, but only two were passed. The House then took a recess until 7:30 P. M., the evening session to be for business of the Committee on Public Lands.

The House in evening session passed the bill appointing a commission to report on the occupation, ownership, and disposition of lands awarded to the United States by the Emperor of Germany, under the treaty of Washington.

Mr. MORREY, of La., from the Public Lands Committee, reported a bill to repeal the first section of the act of the 21st of June, 1856, for the disposal of public lands for homesteads to actual settlers in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and Arkansas. The bill was discussed at considerable length. Its object is to allow public lands in the South, which were after the war reserved for settlement by the freedmen, to be sold as they are in other sections of the country. It was strenuously opposed by Conger, Willard, Hawley and Holman.

Mr. TOWNSEND, Chairman of the committee, said the object was to put the people of the south in the same position in regard to public lands as the people of the north. The bill was recommitted, which is tantamount to a rejection.

The bill for the sale of the Kansas Indians' lands in Kansas to actual settlers was ordered to a third reading, but could not be finally passed, a quorum not being present.

CITY NOTES.

—The walls of the basement and first story of the City Hall are up.

—Kelder Brothers are rushing the work on their new livery establishment on Fair street.

—The steamer Wm. Cook takes Beecher's church on an excursion on Wednesday.

—There will be another new time-table on the Wallkill Valley Railway in a couple of weeks.

—Mr. A. Barnett, Jr., has leased the Young building on Wall street and will soon open it as a tea store.

—On Friday 76 canal boats laden with 9,725 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—Among the candidates admitted to the bar at the examination held at Albany on Thursday was Wm. L. Conkling of this city.

—Joshua says he was hailed on Friday morning by a chap who said, "Better put a gate on you now—the niggers is got fightin'."

—The Opera House performers were out gathering wild flowers on Friday afternoon, and brought back large quantities of them.

—Henry W. Winne, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, drives a fine bay team seventeen hands high—the handsomest carriage horses of their size in the county.

—The fishing-rods over the shoulders of many, now-a-days, show that the bent of the public mind is the bend of a hook, and the line of action is a fish line.

—The Horse Railroad Company is putting an iron turn-table in near the Rhinecliff ferry; and in upper Kingston, instead of a turn-table, they are extending the track around in their stables.

—The dear creatures have a cocky-looking piece of head gear this season, jabbed up on one side like a Tipperary hat, and the effect, when on a rather stout and middle-aged woman, beats laughing gas galley-west.

—Higginsville was the scene of another fight on Thursday. John Quinn from Murray Hill raised a rumpus with some Jockey Hill fellows, near the Horse Railroad depot. A warrant was issued for Quinn and he was arrested by Officer Brodhead in the evening.

—It is about time the streets should be cleared of unmuzzled dogs. There are hundreds about the city with no owners, and they should be disposed of. Every day we see accounts of persons being bitten by these useless creatures after they have become rabid.

—The four junior clerks in the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company's office are putting on more airs than a newly commissioned Rear Admiral when he hoists his broad pennant for the first time; and it's all because the Company has purchased a new American ensign, twenty by thirty feet, to fly above the office on festive occasions.

Valuable Colt.

Elijah Vandemark at Stone Ridge has a six weeks old colt, sired by the Spanish stallion Don Quixote, for which he has been offered one hundred dollars. The colt is marked precisely like its sire and is a beautiful young animal.

First Rubber Dental Plate.

The first dental plate made in this county of hard rubber was brought to the office of Frisselle & Rosa a few days since for reconstruction. The plate was made by Dr. Finch about eighteen years ago, and had done good service. Comparing this plate with those now made shows a great improvement in this department of dental work.

Stone Ridge Paper Mill.

Work at the Stone Ridge paper mill has been rather dull lately, but the proprietors of that work are making arrangements to run under full force as soon as possible. They intend to employ seventeen hands, and will turn out two tons of paper per day. A large tenement house is being erected near the mill for the accommodation of the hands employed about the works.

Barn Robbed.

Thieves entered the barn of Alfred Van Aken at Cherry Hill in the town of Kingston, on Tuesday night, and stole two blankets, a valuable lap robe and a set of handsome single harness. The robbers have not yet been arrested.

Book Notice.

We have received from D. & J. Sadlier & Co., of New York, a little poem entitled "Sin and its Consequences," by Henry Edward, Archbishop of Westminster. It is a clearly-written treatise upon moral defection as viewed by the church of which the author is an illustrious representative. The book is of the number called out in defence of the extreme orthodox wing of modern religious thought, in reply to "Ecce Homo," ad ilk; although Bishop Manning makes no express allusion to his controversial foes. As setting forth the cherished opinions upon an important topic of a vast denomination, this brochure will be widely read.

SAUGERTIES.

—There is a sign in this place that reads as follows: Bord and Lodging For all Travlers by Martin Killroy.

—"Charlie Van" says that white spot on his head is honorable, and he wouldn't have a full head of hair if he could. "Why," says he, "all great men, like Shakespeare and Washington, were bald."

—The people on the south side of the creek are certainly very enterprising, but there is one thing we guess they must have overlooked, and that is their dilapidated engine house.

—The Rev. C. C. Kahler of the German Lutheran Church gives up his pastorate some time in July.

—Our not-to-be-intimidated acidental insurance friend, T. B. Keeney, was out rowing in his handsome shell boat for the first time this season on Thursday afternoon.

—The funeral of our lamented citizen, Robert Finger, was very largely attended. He was buried with Masonic honors.

—What a pity it is that our immense water power is allowed to lay idle. Why don't our citizens hold out inducements to some of the manufacturers whose establishments were destroyed by the Mill River flood?

—Frank Pidgeon, Jr., says that some day when he hasn't much of anything to do down at Hunter's Point he will come up to Saugerties with a mud-digger and half-a-dozen men and build a road from the powder magazize to the light-house, and present it to the town. If that isn't enough to shame the people into some action in regard to this matter we don't know what will.

A Rebounding Strike.

Richard Owens, a denizen of that celebrated locality known as Stony Hollow, came to Kingston on Thursday evening, and perambulating the pleasant precincts of Higginsville, yielded to its seductive allurements and unfortunately for himself, as after events proved, filled himself to the muzzle with corn juice of the most fiery degree. In this condition he paraded the streets, making combative demonstrations and finally passing a Higginsville gentleman who was quietly sitting on his own doorstep reading his paper, Owens gave him a gentle tap over the head which disturbed his equilibrum and ended his intellectual employment. The gentleman thus rudely disturbed quickly jumping to his feet, made for the Stony Hollowite and with a Heenanlike blow tumbled him into the gutter, from which resting-place he was afterward picked up, in a bruised and bleeding condition, and conveyed to the jail, where Dr. Henry Van Hoevenburgh, the jail physician, attempted to dress his wounds, but was rudely repelled by the inebriated Owens, who insisted that he wasn't drunk and that the Doctor was guilty of inflicting his injuries. He was left to sleep away his illusion, and in the morning was found much soberer, sorer and rational, but without any knowledge of how he came where he was. His wounds were dressed and he was left to reflect on the hard ways of the city.

Fast Time for a Tow Boat.

The steamboat George A. Hoyt, Captain Sandy Forsyth, of Cornell's towing line, on Thursday evening last left abreast the Elysian Fields, and in fifty-two minutes she was abreast of the steamboat dock at Yonkers. That is extraordinary good time for a boat with only twenty pounds of steam to the square inch, natural draft, and burning sea coal. The Thomas Cornell, on her trial trip, ran from Jay street pier to a mile above Yonkers in an hour, carrying forty-five pounds pressure of steam to the square inch, and then she was considered as doing well with a new, stiff engine, and it wasn't any better time, nor so good, as the Hoyt's, for the Cornell had the advantage of blowers, beside she didn't have a lot of big side fenders towing overboard. The crew of the Hoyt are justly tickled over the above feat, for nearly all hands in the other boats of the line during the construction of the Hoyt's engine delighted in calling it a scrap heap, and indulged in all sorts of prophecies about "she would never be able to pull a shad off a grid-iron," &c. We rather imagine Boss Fowler has a right to be tickled too, and now he should give the Hoyt a blower.

Firemanic.

The members of Phœnix Hose Company and a large number of invited guests assembled at the carriage house Thursday evening. It was the fiftieth anniversary of the birthday of John H. Bush, the well-known President of the Company, and the "boys" determined upon giving him a grand reception. Eastman College Band was in attendance, and rendered some of their choicest selections in good style. During the evening. E. W. Shurter, foreman of Phœnix, called the assemblage to order, and proceeded to present to Mr. Bush a splendid pair of gold-bowed eye-glasses. Mr. Bush was greatly surprised but thankful to the "boys" for their kind remembrance of him. Refreshments were served, and speeches made by several of the gentlemen present, among them Chief Engineer Shurter, Foreman Livingston, of Davy Crockett, Capt. Wm. Haubennestel, of Co. D., Scott Guard, Geo. W. Davids, of the Eagle, and others.—Poughkeepsie News.

New Method of Making Wood Paper.

The works of the Ulster County Manufacturing Company, at Mt. Pleasant, are now in successful operation. They are making a very good paper from wood which is free from slivers, producing an article not much inferior to that made from rags. This is the only mill of the kind in operation. The pulp is made ready from the log ready for the engine-beater in about half an hour. This process of making paper is so rapid that it takes only one hour and a half to transform a log into news paper. Mr. Sturdevant is the proprietor of the mill, and expects to do a very heavy business.

This issue of The Daily Freeman is printed on the first lot of paper that passed through the machine, and printers and the public generally can judge of its quality from this sample.

Mrs. Susannah Evans on Temperance.

This talented Welsh lady has been secured to speak on Temperance in Music Hall on Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock. Gen. Smith authorizes us also to announce that she will speak in the Rondout M. E. Church on Sunday evening at 7:45.

Mrs. Evans is so well known it is really unnecessary for us to speak of her qualifications, but she is an exceedingly pleasant speaker, possessed of a charming delivery, and thoroughly in earnest. The Herald, Brooklyn Union, World, Evening Post, Evangelist and other papers, speak of her in the highest terms.

Dio Lewis says of her: "I would not do the Temperance cause a greater service than by introducing Susannah Evans. Her lectures are full of deep, earnest thought, beautifully expressed and delivered in a chaste, ladylike manner."

A Fraternal Fight.

Two brothers named Cashin had a little mill near the new building of John O'Reilly on Union avenue Thusday night about 10 o'clock. We could not learn the cause of the fracas, but it was the cause of disquiet to the whole neighborhood, the residents being greatly annoyed by the shameful rumpus and the obscenity and profanity attending it. One of the brothers was said to be very badly hurt, but we could learn no further particulars. It being "all in the family," they probably hushed it up as much as possible, but to avoid unpleasant talk, perhaps hereafter it would be well to settle such little affairs in the cellar, or back parlor, or wherever it would be least likely to be seen by outsiders.

A MAD DOG'S WORK IN NEWBURGH.

Two Men and Two Boys Bitten.

This morning at about 9 o'clock a mad dog of the hound species was killed in Front street by City Marshal John W. Forsyth, after the animal had run a destructive race of at least two miles, and bitten two men, (including the Marshal) two boys, and several dogs. He was first seen at West Newburgh, had on a collar and chain, and went along quietly, head downward. At West Newburgh he bit a man whose name we have been unable to ascertain. On the way down the avenue the dog came across a boy named Topley, who was attacked and severely bitten in the face—the dog carrying away a piece of his cheek—and had his hand badly mangled. On the avenue also a boy of fifteen or sixteen, named McCallen, was bitten in the finger. Young McCallen after receiving the bite hurried down High street to police headquarters and informed City Marshal Forsyth that the dog was coming down through Colden street. The Marshal seized a revolver and a club and hurried down First street to Colden to dispatch the animal when he should make his appearance. A number of children were gathered at the corner and the Marshal did not shoot, being fearful of hitting one of the children. He, however, tried to kill the dog with the club, but only gave him a couple of blows that did not have the effect of stunning him. The animal snapped at Mr. Forsyth at this point, but whether the bite was inflicted at this time or afterwards the Marshal in the excitement of the pursuit could not say. The animal got away and ran down First street to Front, taking his course northward in that street. At Colonel Torbush's hotel the Marshal tried to shoot the dog, but unfortunately the pistol would not go off and the dog again got away, but it was in the struggle here probably that the Marshal received his wound. The dog bit him in the right leg, about midway between the knee and ankle. At Carpenter street the Marshal borrowed a revolver and continued the pursuit, coming up with the animal at Alexander Cauldwell's boiler works. Here a couple of bullets were put into the animal, but his career was not yet ended. He ran as far as the brewery, where the Marshal dispatched him by a bullet in the head. On the way up Front street the hound bit two other dogs. Marshal Forsyth, on finishing the job, at once started for home to look after his wounded limb, and the prompt application of remedies to the wound which was made by order of a physician will, we hope, avert any evil consequences of the injury.

Young McCallen was bitten on the second finger of the right hand. He followed the dog up until the animal was killed, and then went home to see about his hurts. Dr. Wm. Jones cauterized the wound and gave him internal remedies, and Dr. P. M. Barclay (who is superintending the Marshal's case) was also called.

Young Topley is about six years of age. As the dog was coming quietly along, head downward, dragging the chain, the child attempted to get hold of the chain, when the dog turned on him, knocked him down, bit him in the right cheek, as stated, and severely "chawed" his right hand, which is bitten clear through. Dr. J. G. Birch was called and cauterized the child's wounds and administered remedies.

After the criminal had bitten the boys, he attacked, at the corner of Grand street and Western avenue, a black and tan dog known as "Cap," knocked him down and bit a piece out of his jaw. "Cap" has since been shot. The other dogs known to have been bitten will be looked after.—Newburgh Journal.

Real Estate Suit.

A big law suit is expected. We have in this section a resident who hails from Shawangunk originally, and has a mania for buying farms, and then on flimsy pretext throwing up the agreement. Last winter he bought the late David Bookstaver farm, for about $70 per acre, and agreed to pay $1,000 liquidated damages in case of failure to perform. The first of April, the time fixed for the giving of the deed, the payment of the money, &c., came, and he, as usual, had concluded to decline to perform his part of the contract.—There were several reasons assigned by him. One was that there was a defect in the transferer's title. The latter searched among his papers and found the conveyance, which he had received for a part of the farm (there was no question as to the rest) and discovered that he had neglected to put the same on record in the County Clerk's Office. This he offered to do before the setting of the sun. The other party declined, went away, and the seller had his farm on his hands, unrented and unsold. He proposes to bring suit for the $1,000 liquidated damages. Quite a number of interesting questions will arise in the suit, and great interest is taken in the matter by the people of Montgomery and Crawford, who know of the purchaser's farm-buying and backing-out mania.—Montgomery Cor. Newburgh Journal.

Successful Trout Fishers.

McD. Van Wagoner and friend Hoar, Jr., of this city, with Thomas Hill, William Gillespie and Hector Rose, from Shandaken, returned to Shandaken from the Neversink fishing grounds on Friday morning, having been there a day and a half, meeting with extraordinary good luck. They caught 1,300 trout, or 101 pounds, being the largest catch in the shortest time on record among the old fishermen of that section. Of course The Freeman was remembered, and we have to acknowledge the receipt of a fine lot of the speckled beauties, many of which were of unusually large size.

We had scarcely distributed the above mess when the American Express delivered to us a box of fine trout from the Weber and Gross party, who have been fishing in Mill Brook, Delaware county. The fish were beauties, and eagerly sought by the editorial corps. The fishing-party consisted of Chief Engineers Weber and Gross, H. D. Feller and G. Payne, of New York, Wm. H. McElroy and John Stutts of this city.

The Schoonmaker-Cooper Suit.

The Albany Express, in its issue of Friday morning, says: "The famous reference suit which has been before Erek Cowen, Esq., referee, for the past few months, to ascertain the value of legal services performed by Marius Schoonmaker and James M. Cooper, in certain actions brought by the Board of Supervisors of the county of Ulster against John C. Brodhead, late County Treasurer of Ulster county, and for conducting which they claim $38,900, was brought to a close yesterday in the County Court room, City Hall, before the referee. Messrs. N. C. Moak and Peter Cantine summed up for the Board of Supervisors, and Messrs. Charles A. Fowler and Marius Schoonmaker for the claimants. At the close of the arguments the referee took the papers and reserved his decision.

Come, Ye Faint and Weary!

The editors of western Massachusetts have lately been promising themselves a short vacation and an excursion, either to Overlook Mountain House or to Quebec. If those editors entertain correct views of their natural and acquired failings and needs (and we believe they do) they will certainly come to the Overlook. There is no place to recuperate in brain and nerve force like it. The admirable host, Mr. John E. Lasher, deals out just the right kind of pabulum for such men. By all means let them come and feast their eyes on the wonderful scenery, and breathe the pure and invigorating air of the Overlook.

—George Adee, a lawyer of Davenport Centre, has been arrested and held to bail for defrauding a soldier's widow of her pension.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamer Pittston—Boats Sarah McFadden, No. 1,493, Passaic, 6 Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s boats.

The following were yesterday's up tows:

Boats R. Masten, Charter, H. Palmer, P. D. Waltes, Loyalist, Success to Catskill, barges John Darrow, Scow, No. 20 to Flatbush, D. & H. C. Co.'s boats and barges, boat 3,115 from Dobbs Ferry.

Personal.

Mr. William Maxwell, the jolly Saugerties Postmaster, called upon us on Friday. He reports his office as doing a good business, notwithstanding the panic.

VICINITY.

—A boatman named Philip Sheldon was robbed of his pocket-book, containing $30, in a den in Diamond street, Hudson, on Wednesday afternoon.

—In consequence of the coopers' strike in New York, Poughkeepsie firms now manufacture 700 sugar barrels daily, working night and day.

—The Poughkeepsie & Eastern Railroad is running five trains per day from Poughkeepsie to Pine Plains, and three from Pine Plains to Millerton.

—The laundry at Sing Sing prison is now fully established, a contract having been made with the prison authorities for the labor of 300 men, at 50 cents per day. A large building for the purpose is being constructed, which will have a length of 250 feet.

—A kind-hearted Newburgh gentleman found a billy goat with his head in chancery in a picket-fence and released him, whereupon the ungrateful animal butted his benefactor over, spoiling his Sunday clothes. But the gentleman has learned something—he knows which is the butt end of a goat.

—Water rents in Newburgh are charged by the number of feet frontage of the building, and the number and height of the stories. Special rates are made for baths, bakeries, breweries, butchers, fountains, fish stands, livery stables, steam engines, water closets, etc., all of which consume more than an ordinary amount of water.

—A man claiming to be a son of Henry Livingston, of Claverack, Columbia county, which fact is pretty well substantiated, was arrested in Chicago recently for attempting to procure $200,000 on a forged check. Through some means not stated he was let go. His family reside there and are destitute. He is charged with having committed forgeries before.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

A House of Ill Repute.

MR. EDITOR:—There is in the lower end of this city a house, the character of which is well known to most of the people living in it. But it is better known to some of the City Fathers whose residences are quite close to the vile den; and yet they pass by several times each day to and from their avocations, and hear and see the brawls and quarrels of brutes in human form who go to that moral slaughter house. They behold the horrid appearances and pale and guilty countenances of its female inmates, who, lost to all shame, make not the least effort to conceal themselves.

Those colored gentlemen (?) who made Thursday evening frightful with their yells and blasphemies on Foxhall road had things pretty nearly their own way at this hell before going to their miserable homes. It seems they carried the spirit with which they were inspired from this hall to Foxhall road and then finished the row which they so auspiciously commenced.

Now there are other places as disgraceful perhaps as the one alluded to, but they are not so conspicuous, and possibly our authorities are not to be blamed for them, for they are in out-of-the-way, back places, and may not scandalize a respectable community, as this unquestionably does. This is under the shadow of one of our churches, on our most public thoroughfare; children pass and repass it on their way to and from school, it has been long the terror of decent persons, especially on Saturday nights, to go by.

The members of the Common Council know it, for one of them saw the disgraceful affray between wretched whites and negroes on Thursday and passed by quite unconcernedly, and probably that same member with some others will occupy an entire evening discussing some trifling question that concerns nobody, and amounts to nothing.

But we have Sunday fights and daily scandals, and the scoundrels who engage in them are allowed to go with impunity, because every one is afraid to do his duty, and the city is acquiring a name that will make the more respectable folks bow their heads with shame.

Now one of those negroes—the very one who talked loudest, and who needed to be thrashed the most—had been ordered by a Justice to carry no concealed weapons, but it appears that he forgot the command, or one of his friends must be greatly mistaken. That man ought to be looked after. Can nothing be done to rid the community of such a foul blot, such an eyesore, on its most public road? Are those who reside within its dirty, yellow walls so lost to reason as not to see their position? Will anyone be so low as to be seen in such a filthy hole? It is a disgrace to enter its door, but not to return to enter no more. Perhaps some have been unwittingly ensnared, and who, finding their mistake, resolved to be duped no more. In the meantime the institution ought to be suppressed, as there is a law against such places.

CITY NOTES.

—The walls of the basement and first story of the City Hall are up.

—Kelder Brothers are rushing the work on their new livery establishment on Fair street.

—The steamer Wm. Cook takes Beecher's church on an excursion on Wednesday.

—There will be another new time-table on the Wallkill Valley Railway in a couple of weeks.

—Mr. A. Barnett, Jr., has leased the Young building on Wall street and will soon open it as a tea store.

—On Friday 76 canal boats laden with 9,725 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—Among the candidates admitted to the bar at the examination held at Albany on Thursday was Wm. L. Conkling of this city.

—Joshua says he was hailed on Friday morning by a chap who said, "Better put a gate on you now—the niggers is got fightin'."

—The Opera House performers were out gathering wild flowers on Friday afternoon, and brought back large quantities of them.

—Henry W. Winne, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, drives a fine bay team seventeen hands high—the handsomest carriage horses of their size in the county.

—The fishing-rods over the shoulders of many, now-a-days, show that the bent of the public mind is the bend of a hook, and the line of action is a fish line.

—The Horse Railroad Company is putting an iron turn-table in near the Rhinecliff ferry; and in upper Kingston, instead of a turn-table, they are extending the track around in their stables.

—The dear creatures have a cocky-looking piece of head gear this season, jabbed up on one side like a Tipperary hat, and the effect, when on a rather stout and middle-aged woman, beats laughing gas galley-west.

—Higginsville was the scene of another fight on Thursday. John Quinn from Murray Hill raised a rumpus with some Jockey Hill fellows, near the Horse Railroad depot. A warrant was issued for Quinn and he was arrested by Officer Brodhead in the evening.

—It is about time the streets should be cleared of unmuzzled dogs. There are hundreds about the city with no owners, and they should be disposed of. Every day we see accounts of persons being bitten by these useless creatures after they have become rabid.

—The four junior clerks in the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company's office are putting on more airs than a newly commissioned Rear Admiral when he hoists his broad pennant for for the first time; and it's all because the Company has purchased a new American ensign, twenty by thirty feet, to fly above the office on festive occasions.

Valuable Colt.

Elijah Vandemark at Stone Ridge has a six weeks old colt, sired by the Spanish stallion Don Quixote, for which he has been offered one hundred dollars. The colt is marked precisely like its sire and is a beautiful young animal.

First Rubber Dental Plate.

The first dental plate made in this county of hard rubber was brought to the office of Frisselle & Rosa a few days since for reconstruction. The plate was made by Dr. Finch about eighteen years ago, and had done good service. Comparing this plate with those now made shows a great improvement in this department of dental work.

Stone Ridge Paper Mill.

Work at the Stone Ridge paper mill has been rather dull lately, but the proprietors of that work are making arrangements to run under full force as soon as possible. They intend to employ seventeen hands, and will turn out two tons of paper per day. A large tenement house is being erected near the mill for the accommodation of the hands employed about the works.

Barn Robbed.

Thieves entered the barn of Alfred Van Aken at Cherry Hill in the town of Kingston, on Tuesday night, and stole two blankets, a valuable lap robe and a set of handsome single harness. The robbers have not yet been arrested.

Book Notice.

We have received from D. & J. Sadlier & Co., of New York, a little poem entitled "Sin and its Consequences," by Henry Edward, Archbishop of Westminster. It is a clearly-written treatise upon moral defection as viewed by the church of which the author is an illustrious representative. The book is of the number called out in defence of the extreme orthodox wing of modern religious thought, in reply to "Ecce Homo," ad ilk; although Bishop Manning makes no express allusion to his controversial foes. As setting forth the cherished opinions upon an important topic of a vast denomination, this brochure will be widely read.

SAUGERTIES.

—There is a sign in this place that reads as follows: Bord and Lodging For all Travlers by Martin Killroy.

—"Charlie Van" says that white spot on his head is honorable, and he wouldn't have a full head of hair if he could. "Why," says he, "all great men, like Shakespeare and Washington, were bald."

—The people on the south side of the creek are certainly very enterprising, but there is one thing we guess they must have overlooked, and that is their dilapidated engine house.

—The Rev. C. C. Kahler of the German Lutheran Church gives up his pastorate some time in July.

—Our not-to-be-intimidated acidental insurance friend, T. B. Keeney, was out rowing in his handsome shell boat for the first time this season on Thursday afternoon.

—The funeral of our lamented citizen, Robert Finger, was very largely attended. He was buried with Masonic honors.

—What a pity it is that our immense water power is allowed to lay idle. Why don't our citizens hold out inducements to some of the manufacturers whose establishments were destroyed by the Mill River flood?

—Frank Pidgeen, Jr., says that some day when he hasn't much of anything to do down at Hunter's Point he will come up to Saugerties with a mud-digger and half-a-dozen men and build a road from the powder magazize to the light-house, and present it to the town. If that isn't enough to shame the people into some action in regard to this matter we don't know what will.

A Rebounding Strike.

Richard Owens, a denizen of that celebrated locality known as Stony Hollow, came to Kingston on Thursday evening, and perambulating the pleasant precincts of Higginsville, yielded to its seductive allurements and unfortunately for himself, as after events proved, filled himself to the muzzle with corn juice of the most fiery degree. In this condition he paraded the streets, making combative demonstrations and finally passing a Higginsville gentleman who was quietly sitting on his own doorstep reading his paper, Owens gave him a gentle tap over the head which disturbed his equilibrum and ended his intellectual employment. The gentleman thus rudely disturbed quickly jumping to his feet, made for the Stony Hollowite and with a Heenanlike blow tumbled him into the gutter, from which resting-place he was afterward picked up, in a bruised and bleeding condition, and conveyed to the jail, where Dr. Henry Van Hœvenburgh, the jail physician, attempted to dress his wounds, but was rudely repelled by the inebriated Owens, who insisted that he wasn't drunk and that the Doctor was guilty of inflicting his injuries. He was left to sleep away his illusion, and in the morning was found much soberer, sorer and rational, but without any knowledge of how he came where he was. His wounds were dressed and he was left to reflect on the hard ways of the city.

Fast Time for a Tow Boat.

The steamboat George A. Hoyt, Captain Sandy Forsyth, of Cornell's towing line, on Thursday evening last left abreast the Elysian Fields, and in fifty-two minutes she was abreast of the steamboat dock at Yonkers. That is extraordinary good time for a boat with only twenty pounds of steam to the square inch, natural draft, and burning sea coal. The Thomas Cornell, on her trial trip, ran from Jay street pier to a mile above Yonkers in an hour, carrying forty-five pounds pressure of steam to the square inch, and then she was considered as doing well with a new, stiff engine, and it wasn't any better time, nor so good, as the Hoyt's, for the Cornell had the advantage of blowers, beside she didn't have a lot of big side fenders towing overboard. The crew of the Hoyt are justly tickled over the above feat, for nearly all hands in the other boats of the line during the construction of the Hoyt's engine delighted in calling it a scrap heap, and indulged in all sorts of prophecies about "she would never be able to pull a shad off a grid-iron," &c. We rather imagine Boss Fowler has a right to be tickled too, and now he should give the Hoyt a blower.

Firemanic.

The members of Phœnix Hose Company and a large number of invited guests assembled at the carriage house Thursday evening. It was the fiftieth anniversary of the birthday of John H. Bush, the well-known President of the Company, and the "boys" determined upon giving him a grand reception. Eastman College Band was in attendance, and rendered some of their choicest selections in good style. During the evening, E. W. Shurter, foreman of Phœnix, called the assemblage to order, and proceeded to present to Mr. Bush a splendid pair of gold-bowed eye-glasses. Mr. Bush was greatly surprised but thankful to the "boys" for their kind remembrance of him. Refreshments were served, and speeches made by several of the gentlemen present, among them Chief Engineer Shurter, Foreman Livingston, of Davy Crockett, Capt. Wm. Haubennestel, of Co. D., Scott Guard, Geo. W. Davids, of the Eagle, and others.—Poughkeepsie News.

New Method of Making Wood Paper.

The works of the Ulster County Manufacturing Company, at Mt. Pleasant, are now in successful operation. They are making a very good paper from wood which is free from slivers, producing an article not much inferior to that made from rags. This is the only mill of the kind in operation. The pulp is made ready from the log ready for the engine-beater in about half an hour. This process of making paper is so rapid that it takes only one hour and a half to transform a log into news paper. Mr. Sturdevant is the proprietor of the mill, and expects to do a very heavy business.

This issue of The Daily Freeman is printed on the first lot of paper that passed through the machine, and printers and the public generally can judge of its quality from this sample.

Mrs. Susannah Evans on Temperance.

This talented Welsh lady has been secured to speak on Temperance in Music Hall on Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock. Gen. Smith authorizes us also to announce that she will speak in the Rondout M. E. Church on Sunday evening at 7:45.

Mrs. Evans is so well known it is really unnecessary for us to speak of her qualifications, but she is an exceedingly pleasant speaker, possessed of a charming delivery, and thoroughly in earnest. The Herald, Brooklyn Union, World, Evening Post, Evangelist and other papers, speak of her in the highest terms.

Dio Lewis says of her: "I would not do the Temperance cause a greater service than by introducing Susannah Evans. Her lectures are full of deep, earnest thought, beautifully expressed and delivered in a chaste, ladylike manner."

A Fraternal Fight.

Two brothers named Cashin had a little mill near the new building of John O'Reilly on Union avenue Thusday night about 10 o'clock. We could not learn the cause of the fracas, but it was the cause of disquiet to the whole neighborhood, the residents being greatly annoyed by the shameful rumpus and the obscenity and profanity attending it. One of the brothers was said to be very badly hurt, but we could learn no further particulars. It being "all in the family," they probably hushed it up as much as possible, but to avoid unpleasant talk, perhaps hereafter it would be well to settle such little affairs in the cellar, or back parlor, or wherever it would be least likely to be seen by outsiders.

A MAD DOG'S WORK IN NEWBURGH.

Two Men and Two Boys Bitten.

This morning at about 9 o'clock a mad dog of the hound species was killed in Front street by City Marshal John W. Forsyth, after the animal had run a destructive race of at least two miles, and bitten two men, (including the Marshal) two boys, and several dogs. He was first seen at West Newburgh, had on a collar and chain, and went along quietly, head downward. At West Newburgh he bit a man whose name we have been unable to ascertain. On the way down the avenue the dog came across a boy named Topley, who was attacked and severely bitten in the face—the dog carrying away a piece of his cheek—and had his hand badly mangled. On the avenue also a boy of fifteen or sixteen, named McCallen, was bitten in the finger. Young McCallen after receiving the bite hurried down High street to police headquarters and informed City Marshal Forsyth that the dog was coming down through Colden street. The Marshal seized a revolver and a club and hurried down First street to Colden to dispatch the animal when he should make his appearance. A number of children were gathered at the corner and the Marshal did not shoot, being fearful of hitting one of the children. He, however, tried to kill the dog with the club, but only gave him a couple of blows that did not have the effect of stunning him. The animal snapped at Mr. Forsyth at this point, but whether the bite was inflicted at this time or afterwards the Marshal in the excitement of the pursuit could not say. The animal got away and ran down First street to Front, taking his course northward in that street. At Colonel Torbush's hotel the Marshal tried to shoot the dog, but unfortunately the pistol would not go off and the dog again got away, but it was in the struggle here probably that the Marshal received his wound. The dog bit him in the right leg, about midway between the knee and ankle. At Carpenter street the Marshal borrowed a revolver and continued the pursuit, coming up with the animal at Alexander Cauldwell's boiler works. Here a couple of bullets were put into the animal, but his career was not yet ended. He ran as far as the brewery, where the Marshal dispatched him by a bullet in the head. On the way up Front street the hound bit two other dogs. Marshal Forsyth, on finishing the job, at once started for home to look after his wounded limb, and the prompt application of remedies to the wound which was made by order of a physician will, we hope, avert any evil consequences of the injury.

Young McCallen was bitten on the second finger of the right hand. He followed the dog up until the animal was killed, and then went home to see about his hurts. Dr. Wm. Jones cauterized the wound and gave him internal remedies, and Dr. P. M. Barclay (who is superintending the Marshal's case) was also called.

Young Topley is about six years of age. As the dog was coming quietly along, head downward, dragging the chain, the child attempted to get hold of the chain, when the dog turned on him, knocked him down, bit him in the right cheek, as stated, and severely "chawed" his right hand, which is bitten clear through. Dr. J. G. Birch was called and cauterized the child's wounds and administered remedies.

After the criminal had bitten the boys, he attacked, at the corner of Grand street and Western avenue, a black and tan dog known as "Cap," knocked him down and bit a piece out of his jaw. "Cap" has since been shot. The other dogs known to have been bitten will be looked after.—Newburgh Journal.

Real Estate Suit.

A big law suit is expected. We have in this section a resident who hails from Shawangunk originally, and has a mania for buying farms, and then on flimsy pretext throwing up the agreement. Last winter he bought the late David Bookstaver farm, for about $70 per acre, and agreed to pay $1,000 liquidated damages in case of failure to perform. The first of April, the time fixed for the giving of the deed, the payment of the money, &c., came, and he, as usual, had concluded to decline to perform his part of the contract.—There were several reasons assigned by him. One was that there was a defect in the transferer's title. The latter searched among his papers and found the conveyance, which he had received for a part of the farm (there was no question as to the rest) and discovered that he had neglected to put the same on record in the County Clerk's Office. This he offered to do before the setting of the sun. The other party declined, went away, and the seller had his farm on his hands, unrented and unsold. He proposes to bring suit for the $1,000 liquidated damages. Quite a number of interesting questions will arise in the suit, and great interest is taken in the matter by the people of Montgomery and Crawford, who know of the purchaser's farm-buying and backing-out mania.—Montgomery Cor. Newburgh Journal.

Successful Trout Fishers.

McD. Van Wagoner and friend Hoar, Jr., of this city, with Thomas Hill, William Gillespie and Hector Rose, from Shandaken, returned to Shandaken from the Neversink fishing grounds on Friday morning, having been there a day and a half, meeting with extraordinary good luck. They caught 1,300 trout, or 101 pounds, being the largest catch in the shortest time on record among the old fishermen of that section. Of course The Freeman was remembered, and we have to acknowledge the receipt of a fine lot of the speckled beauties, many of which were of unusually large size.

We had scarcely distributed the above mess when the American Express delivered to us a box of fine trout from the Weber and Gross party, who have been fishing in Mill Brook, Delaware county. The fish were beauties, and eagerly sought by the editorial corps. The fishing-party consisted of Chief Engineers Weber and Gross, H. D. Feller and G. Payne, of New York, Wm. H. McElroy and John Stutts of this city.

The Schoonmaker-Cooper Suit.

The Albany Express, in its issue of Friday morning, says: "The famous reference suit which has been before Erek Cowen, Esq., referee, for the past few months, to ascertain the value of legal services performed by Marius Schoonmaker and James M. Cooper, in certain actions brought by the Board of Supervisors of the county of Ulster against John C. Brodhead, late County Treasurer of Ulster county, and for conducting which they claim $38,900, was brought to a close yesterday in the County Court room, City Hall, before the referee. Messrs. N. C. Moak and Peter Cantine summed up for the Board of Supervisors, and Messrs. Charles A. Fowler and Marius Schoonmaker for the claimants. At the close of the arguments the referee took the papers and reserved his decision.

Come, Ye Faint and Weary!

The editors of western Massachusetts have lately been promising themselves a short vacation and an excursion, either to Overlook Mountain House or to Quebec. If those editors entertain correct views of their natural and acquired failings and needs (and we believe they do) they will certainly come to the Overlook. There is no place to recuperate in brain and nerve force like it. The admirable host, Mr. John E. Lasher, deals out just the right kind of pabulum for such men. By all means let them come and feast their eyes on the wonderful scenery, and breathe the pure and invigorating air of the Overlook.

—George Adee, a lawyer of Davenport Centre, has been arrested and held to bail for defrauding a soldier's widow of her pension.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamers G. A. Hoyt and Oswego—Ice barges David Terry, Virginia, boats H. L. Young, John Edgett, Peck & Church, D. Rosebury, light, 17 D. & H. Canal Co.'s boats to New York.

Propeller Farrington—Boats Mary Kirkpatrick, Sampson, C. B. Hill to Newburgh, John Harlow to New Hamburgh.

Steamer Herald—Boats Union, J. E. Stowe, J. Murray, Amelia to Albany, Bull's Eye to Catskill, light, J. Larkin to New Baltimore.

Steamer Pittston—Boats Sarah McFadden, No. 1,493, Passaic, 6 Pennsylvania Coal Co.'s boats.

The following were yesterday's up tows:

Boats R. Masten, Charter, H. Palmer, P. D. Waltes, Loyalist, Success to Catskill, barges John Darrow, Scow, No. 20 to Flatbush, D. & H. C. Co.'s boats and barges, boat 3,115 from Dobbs Ferry.

Personal.

Mr. William Maxwell, the jolly Saugerties Postmaster, called upon us on Friday. He reports his office as doing a good business, notwithstanding the panic.

VICINITY.

—A boatman named Philip Sheldon was robbed of his pocket-book, containing $30, in a den in Diamond street, Hudson, on Wednesday afternoon.

—In consequence of the coopers' strike in New York, Poughkeepsie firms now manufacture 700 sugar barrels daily working night and day.

—The Poughkeepsie & Eastern Railroad is running five trains per day from Poughkeepsie to Pine Plains, and three from Pine Plains to Millerton.

—The laundry at Sing Sing prison is now fully established, a contract having been made with the prison authorities for the labor of 300 men, at 50 cents per day. A large building for the purpose is being constructed, which will have a length of 250 feet.

—A kind-hearted Newburgh gentleman found a billy goat with his head in chancery in a picket-fence and released him, whereupon the ungrateful animal butted his benefactor over, spoiling his Sunday clothes. But the gentleman has learned something—he knows which is the butt end of a goat.

—Water rents in Newburgh are charged by the number of feet frontage of the building, and the number and height of the stories. Special rates are made for baths, bakeries, breweries, butchers, fountains, fish stands, livery stables, steam engines, water closets, etc., all of which consume more than an ordinary amount of water.

—A man claiming to be a son of Henry Livingston, of Claverack, Columbia county, which fact is pretty well substantiated, was arrested in Chicago recently for attempting to procure $200,000 on a forged check. Through some means not stated he was let go. His family reside there and are destitute. He is charged with having committed forgeries before.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

A House of Ill Repute.

MR. EDITOR:—There is in the lower end of this city a house, the character of which is well known to most of the people living in it. But it is better known to some of the City Fathers whose residences are quite close to the vile den; and yet they pass by several times each day to and from their avocations, and hear and see the brawls and quarrels of brutes in human form who go to that moral slaughter house. They behold the horrid appearances and pale and guilty countenances of its female inmates, who, lost to all shame, make not the least effort to conceal themselves.

Those colored gentlemen (?) who made Thursday evening frightful with their yells and blasphemies on Foxhall road had things pretty nearly their own way at this hell before going to their miserable homes. It seems they carried the spirit with which they were inspired from this hall to Foxhall road and then finished the row which they so auspiciously commenced.

Now there are other places as disgraceful perhaps as the one alluded to, but they are not so conspicuous, and possibly our authorities are not to be blamed for them, for they are in out-of-the-way, back places, and may not scandalize a respectable community, as this unquestionably does. This is under the shadow of one of our churches, on our most public thoroughfare; children pass and repass it on their way to and from school, it has been long the terror of decent persons, especially on Saturday nights, to go by.

The members of the Common Council know it, for one of them saw the disgraceful affray between wretched whites and negroes on Thursday and passed by quite unconcernedly, and probably that same member with some others will occupy an entire evening discussing some trifling question that concerns nobody, and amounts to nothing.

But we have Sunday fights and daily scandals, and the scoundrels who engage in them are allowed to go with impunity, because every one is afraid to do his duty, and the city is acquiring a name that will make the more respectable folks bow their heads with shame.

Now one of those negroes—the very one who talked loudest, and who needed to be thrashed the most—had been ordered by a Justice to carry no concealed weapons, but it appears that he forgot the command, or one of his friends must be greatly mistaken. That man ought to be looked after. Can nothing be done to rid the community of such a foul blot, such an eyesore, on its most public road? Are those who reside within its dirty, yellow walls so lost to reason as not to see their position? Will anyone be so low as to be seen in such a filthy hole? It is a disgrace to enter its door, but not to return to enter no more. Perhaps some have been unwittingly ensnared, and who, finding their mistake, resolved to be duped no more. In the meantime the institution ought to be suppressed, as there is a law against such places.

BRIGGS' THROAT AND LUNG HEALER is a soothing an reliable remedy. Sold by R. Deyo, Rondout.

PILES may be caused by anything that will irritate the lower bowels, producing a determination of blood to the rectum, as drastic cathartics, from the extensive use of which, in past years, the disease has become very common, habitual constipation, straining at stool, diseases of the liver, much riding on horseback, tight stays, sedentary habits, high living, heating, irritating food, etc. USE BRIGG'S PILE REMEDIES. Sold by S. E. D. Hoornbeck, Wawarsing.

Corns.

All these benefits are secured by the use of Briggs' Miraculous Corn and Bunion Remedies. Sold by P. Gray, High Falls.

Piles.

If it were possible to portray the torture endured by millions who are troubled with internal, bleeding, external and itching piles, the picture would not be a pleasant one. The agonies of the cursed cannot be worse, and from these sufferings there seems no escape. But science has demonstrated there is a remedy, safe and reliable. Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedies are the climax of medical science. Sold by J. G. Kemble, Stone Ridge.

"Good morning, Susan; how do you dew?" "Very well, I thank you, but ma is almost dead with her bunions." "Well, I declare; I never heard she had such things, but they do say Briggs' Corn and Bunion Remedies are a sartin cure. All the drug stores have got some and say they sell awful fast." Sold by Dr. Lounsbery, Stone Ridge.

Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is composed of Canada Balsam, Extract of Tamarac, and other Balsams, Gums, Roots, Plants, &c., which are combined in the most scientific manner. AS CURATIVE AGENTS, the Balsamic virtues of the Wild Evergreen in the cure of the numerous diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Chest, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, which always, in our ever-varying climate, prevail in a greater or less degree, are well-known; but the power of relieving, healing and curing these diseases is enhanced when, by scientific principles, it is combined with other ingredients of equal value as healing agents. VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — PURELY — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — ALCOHOL — VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

ERIE RAILWAY

EASTERN DIVISION AND BRANCHES

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaptation to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE · FREE FROM ALCOHOL · DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA · EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

The direct and popular Route from all parts of ORANGE and ULSTER Counties to NEW YORK CITY

And the great through route to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago, Cincinnati, and all points WEST.

Rondout, May 1st, 1874.

The attention of the public is respectfully invited to our Spring opening of Carpets, Dress Fabrics, General Dry Goods and Housekeeping Articles, and we confidently believe that a fair inspection will demonstrate our Stock to be second to none in this city.

These goods are of recent purchase and our best judgment has been exerted in selection of styles, varieties and adaption to the needs of this vicinity.

Every advantage to be gained from buying for Cash, and in discounts and differences on time bills, has been realized by us on these invoices, and as the old axiom "Goods well bought are half sold" is still a truism, we count on an active and satisfactory trade.

The practice of our firm in regard to marking profits is generally known, but we reiterate it here, as aiming for a large trade at small advances and with quick returns, rather than the old style of full profits, moderate sales, extended credits, and old goods held for original prices.

In the line of Carpets, we deem ourselves specially fortunate in having made almost an entire clearance at our annual stock taking (March 1st), and thus are not encumbered with old patterns, or hampered by necessity of sale of last year's goods at actual loss, but can offer our friends entirely fresh goods at prices now current. These goods are not bought in lots at few places, but culled from every leading stock in New York City that holds out an attraction or makes an extra inducement on price; and for variety, desirableness and cheapness, they are unexcelled in this city.

Our entire stock on main floor is unusually complete and attractive, and it will afford us pleasure to show you these Goods at your earliest convenience.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE CENTENNIAL GAZETTEER OF THE UNITED STATES.

No book has ever been published of such universal interest to the American people. It appeals to no particular class alone, but to all classes; to men and women of all professions, creeds, occupations and political opinions—to Farmers, Lawyers, Business Men, Mechanics, Physicians, Politicians, Teachers, Students, Manufacturers, Salesmen, men of learning and men who can only read, to old and young. All want it as a book of constant reference, and to preserve for their children and children's children as the only complete and reliable work, showing the gigantic results of THE FIRST ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF THE GREATEST REPUBLIC THE WORLD EVER SAW. It is not a luxury but a necessity to every well-informed American citizen. Agents make $100 to $300 per month. Send for circular. ZIEGLER & McCURDY, Philadelphia, Pa. May 12w4
